

IF YOU DON'T GET YOUR PROGRESS
LET US KNOW

CLEARFIELD PROGRESS

THE WEATHER

Fair and cooler tonight. Fair and warmer Sunday.

VOLUME XVI

THE CLEARFIELD PROGRESS, CLEARFIELD, PA., SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 26, 1922.

NUMBER 200

CABINET SETTLES ON A PLAN TO TAKE OVER RAILWAYS

But This Step Will Be
Taken Only In Case of Breakdown In Ability
To Transport Freight.

DEVELOPMENTS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—The anthracite mine strike must be settled or the Government will take steps to seize and operate the pits Monday. This is the President's ultimatum, Senator Watson declared today after a long conference with Mr. Harding at the White House.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—Plans for Federal operation of the anthracite mines and the railroads that fail to function have been completed by President Harding and his advisors, it was made known today, as the anthracite and railroad strikes appear absolutely deadlocked. A final effort will be made to bring about peace in the hard coal fields. If this fails a measure will be introduced next week calling for Federal operation of the mines. Seizure of the railroads is not contemplated until the managements have been given an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to maintain service. If the lines show signs of breaking down then Federal control will be resorted to.

It is not the intention of the Government to make a nation-wide seizure of the roads at one time although the bills giving the President the power to take over the lines may vest him with blanket authority to operate the entire systems at one time, Senator Cummins made it known. Cummins bill creating a Federal distribution agency and giving additional powers to the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue orders for embargoes and other suitable measures for the equitable distribution of coal during the present emergency was before the Interstate Commerce Commission for action. It was believed the bill would be reported.

Dublin Mourns Death Of Collins By Protection Of Rapid Machine Guns

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 26.—Dublin today is a city of mourning and machine guns. Snouts of rapid fire rifles pointed out from behind sombre ribbons of crepe which were draped about the buildings out of respect for Michael Collins, slain leader of the Free State. The Free State while outwardly turning its attention to honoring Collins and making ready for his funeral is rushing preparations to resist any attempts to seize this opportunity to attempt the capture of the city and the establishment of a republic. Reports still persist that DeValera is in County Louth planning an attack on Dublin over the week-end. A day of mourning is planned throughout Free State territory, all work and commerce except that which is essential will be suspended for the day in Dublin.

MAN, BURNED LITTLE GIRL'S HAND TO BONE SENTENCED TO YEAR

Bayonne, N. J., Aug. 26.—Found guilty of holding the hand of his 6-year-old daughter Dorothy over a stove, burning it to the bone, William H. Moore, a blacksmith, was sentenced to one year in the county penitentiary.

"The only fit punishment for you would be the same as you gave the child—to hold you over a fire," said Recorder William J. Cain in imposing sentence.

Recorder Cain took the little girl on his knee and asked her who burned her hand.

"Daddy burned it," she said, "while he was drunk."

Ex-Postmaster Con Allen, of DuBois, was a Clearfield visitor today.

Police Rescue Drugged High School Girl From Pittsburgh Hotel Room

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26.—Led by her father, police today rescued Miss Elizabeth Rea, a pretty high school girl, from a room in a North Side hotel where she alleged she had been taken after being drugged. Police arrested William J. Means in connection with the abduction. The prisoner, who is recovering from shell shock, was accused by the girl with drugging and kidnapping her. Means is said to be married. The girl stated that the last she remembered was when Means induced her to drink an ice cream soda.

Additional Warrants Are Issued For Communists Who Attended Big Meet

St. Joseph, Mich., Aug. 26.—Twenty-three additional warrants, calling for a total of forty Communists, including five women, were issued today in connection with the Communist convention held Tuesday by Federal officials at Brigeau, Mich. Twelve of the alleged Communists sought refuge in New York, Cleveland and other cities, but would be taken into custody today, it was announced by Federal authorities.

REAL "OLD FASHIONED" RUNAWAY TEAM CAUSES EXCITEMENT ON MAIN STREETS

"Hairbreadth Harry" Hershey Dashes Through Crowd, Grips Harness And Brings Rushing Team to Dead Stop.

NO DAMAGE IS REPORTED

Considerable excitement was occasioned on Second and Market streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock by a sight which is rarely witnessed in these days of "horseless carriages." Fred Leavy's farmer was hauling hay to his barn just off Leavy avenue. After unloading the driver climbed up over the hay rigging onto the wagon and the horses startled by the noise he made behind them started down street. The driver was able to get hold of but one of the lines and in attempting to stop them with the one line added to their fright sufficiently to have them let out a few notches in their speed and they dashed out onto Second street at a pretty lively gallop.

Bud Goldy traveling up Second street with a truck load of dirt gave the runaways a clear right of way.

CLARION MAN, THOT DEAD, COMES HOME AFTER TWO YEARS

Wife Collected $8,000 Insurance Believing Him Killed In An Explosion In The West.

MIND HAD FAILED

Clarion, Pa., Aug. 26.—A. W. Weed today told how he had wandered about the country for nearly two years, his mind a blank, following an explosion of a magazine of the Osage Torpedo Company, at Taluska, Okla., where he was employed. Weed, whose wife collected $8,000 insurance in the belief that he was blown to atoms related his experiences from the time he found himself lying beside a small stream following the explosion until he was arrested and lodged in jail here for driving an automobile without a license. He said part of the time he had been in Sandusky, Ohio, where he worked on the wharves and that he was afraid to return home in the belief he would be charged with the destruction of the magazine.

NEW SENATOR DON'T BELIEVE IN PASSING BUCK ON BONUS

Major Reed, Appointee to Crow's Post, Springs A Surprise In Senate By Opposition Speech.

PRECEDENT BROKE

Washington, Aug. 25.—Major David A. Reed of Pittsburgh, junior senator from Pennsylvania and one of the two world war veterans in the upper House of Congress, exploded a bombshell among his colleagues today with a speech opposing the soldier bonus.

It was his first plunge into Senatorial debate. His move was unexpected, and his position on the bonus, although generally assumed to be negative, was not definitely known until he arose in the midst of the Senate's discussion of the McCumber bonus bill.

"I am not willing, in army slang, to pass the buck to the President," Senator Reed declared. "Therefore I shall vote against this bill now."

This expression came at the conclusion of a five-minute address from his seat in the "Cherokee strip" on the Democratic side of the aisle.

Storm Center in Fight.

Colleagues came over afterward to extend congratulations. Among them was Senator Sheppard of Texas, a Democrat, a supporter of the McCumber measure, and sponsor of the Eighteenth amendment to the Constitution—the Prohibition amendment.

Senator Reed had been a storm center in the bonus fight for several days. He was under tremendous pressure from both sides to "line up." Opponents of the bonus, hoping he would oppose it, urged him to get into the debate. He was told the view of an ex-service man in the Senate would carry weight. Letters and telegrams opposing the passage of bonus legislation also had reached him, as well as communications from American Legion posts favoring it.

A conviction that the bill should be defeated, coupled with reiterated requests from senatorial associates that he come out against it publicly, induced him to "break the ice" with a bonus speech.

Favorable Impression.

His entry into senatorial debate was dramatic, rivaling that of Senator Pepper in connection with the Newberry case. Like Senator Pepper, (Continued on Page 3).

Fine Program Is Arranged For The Band Concert At Park Tomorrow P. M.

IN THE CLEARFIELD DRIVING PARK
SUNDAY AFTERNOON 3 P. M.
AUGUST 27TH
CLEARFIELD AMERICAN LEGION BAND
Under Direction Prof. H. Clark Thayer

March, "Belle of Clearfield"
Overture, "Stradella"
Pastoral "Night in June"
Scenes from "Robin Hood"
Tenor Solo "For You"

Mr. H. J. Brown
Selection of Popular Songs
Heard in Parlor and on Streets
Waltz Suite "Murmuring Waters"
Star Spangled Banner

Thayer
Flotow
King
DeKoven
Webster
Brockton
Hall

COX SAYS AMERICA MUST ACT TO SAVE NATIONS OF EUROPE

London, England, Aug. 26.—America must act to save the nations of Europe from complete disruption, James M. Cox, former Democratic candidate for President of the United States, stated here today. He recommended that Herbert Hoover should be designated by the United States to represent this country on the reparations commission, as he holds the confidence of Europe. Cox conveys a message from Chancellor Wirth, of Germany, to this country.

FORD PLANTS OUT; WILL SHUT DOWN 'TIL SEPTEMBER 16

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 26.—Henry Ford will announce tonight that the Ford Motor Company's plants will be closed down until September 16th, it was stated at the office of the Ford Motor Company today. The official announcement will be made at the Dearborn plant. Coal shortage forced the shut down, the announcement will read. Six thousand men already have been laid off at the various Ford plants and sixty-nine thousand more will be affected by the order.

DOLLAR DAY GROWS IN POPULARITY IN CLEARFIELD—EVENT A HUGE SUCCESS

Stores Thronged All Day With Shoppers Coming In From All Parts Of The County By Rail And Auto.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS

Yesterday's Dollar Day was the most successful single merchandising occasion in the recent history of Clearfield's mercantile world. The weather man attempted to interfere with the program by sending a light, misty rain in the early morning hours, but that failed even to discourage the early bargain hunters, with the result that when opening time arrived Friday morning, the streets of the business district had the appearance of show day with the crowds out watching for the parade.

The early shoppers went to it with a rush and soon package and parcel-laden women and children were darting about from store to store, while streams of shoppers with arms full of bundles were seen returning to their homes in every section of the town.

The early shoppers were not confined to local people either, because long lines of automobiles parked along the streets showed that hundreds of out-of-town shoppers were on hand to profit by the bargains on display at their favorite stores. The rain did interfere for a time with this out-of-town trade, but clearing skies before the noon hour served to bring out the country and small town shoppers in numbers which increased every hour of the day. As a result the influx of shoppers kept up in ever-increasing numbers from the opening until tired clerks succeeded in getting their stores closed at 6 o'clock.

Everybody was pleased, the bargain range and quality was above the average of these occasions and many thousands of dollars were left with our merchants, and will result in increasing the scope and magnitude of the next arrival of this big semi-annual bargain event in Clearfield.

FIRST FIELD DAY OF S. S. WORKERS IS A NOVEL EVENT

Nearly Three Thousand People Gather at Irvin Park at Curwensville To Gain Inspiration

AN ANNUAL EVENT

As there has not appeared any writeup in the Progress of the big annual Sunday School Field Day which was held at the new Irvin Park on Thursday, the 24th, the writer has been commissioned by the editor to give a short synopsis of the gathering and the program which was carried out to the very letter.

Thursday morning dawned with every appearance of the day being unfavorable for a day at the park, but about 10 o'clock the dark bank of clouds which had been hovering in the west broke, and the sun came forth shedding its warmth on Mother Earth and drying up the ground from the small rainfall of earlier in the day. The gloomy aspect of the morning had a tendency of keeping many folks from coming to Curwensville who had made all arrangements to do so, yet at noon the crowd numbered almost three thousand.

The program started off on time, as follows: From 9:30 to 10:30 was the assembly; 10:30 to 11:00, music by the Boys' Marine Band. At the former hour mentioned, the committee on children's entertainment commenced their activities and continued until noon, giving the kiddies several hours of honest-to-goodness, enjoyment, and it did the older people good to see them at their sport.

At precisely 11:00 o'clock, another period of the program was taken up, which was of interest to the older folks. At this time Mr. John Haines, chairman of the executive committee, arose and after a few well chosen remarks, introduced John A. Dalg, president of District No. 2, who delivered the address of welcome to the visitors in his usual masterly and (Continued on Page 3).

Thirty-Four Potato Growers Of Janesville Haled Before Court

The State Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg has been making strenuous efforts the past several years to stamp out and eradicate the European wart disease of the potato from Pennsylvania, and on April 18, 1919, a law was passed, which provided the penalty of a fine of five dollars for every case of a person planting seed potatoes which were not known to be immune from this disease, which is raising such havoc with the potato crop wherever allowed to get a foothold.

The Osceola and Janesville or Gulch township sections have been prolific plague spots of this disease in Clearfield county in the past and a number of potato growers in those sections have been prosecuted and fined for their dereliction in this regard in the past couple of years. By reason of this lapse the State inspectors have been keeping pretty close tabs on the potato planters thereabouts.

As a result of this espionage and what he learned, Herbert L. Roberts, of Ebensburg, a State Inspector connected with the Department of Agriculture, appeared before Squire Joseph John on Thursday last and made information against no less than 34 Janesville or Gulch township potato growers, charging violation of the "potato wart" law.

Yesterday Constable Thomas B. Reilly went to Janesville and arrested twenty-seven of the culprits and summoned them to appear before Squire John on Wednesday next to answer the charge.

The potato growers waxed highly indignant when placed under arrest and blamed their downfall upon Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, "Empress" of all of Gulch township, from whom they purchased the potatoes. "What the Empress" says goes up in this neck of woods," one of the victims replied, (Continued on Page 3).

Twenty Five Years To Bring About Absolute Prohibition

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY

NEW YORK, August 26.—How long do prohibition leaders think it will take to make America dry?

"Twenty-five years," says William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Anderson, though a state leader, is the most militant prohibitionist in the country and he admits he has the hardest job in the wettest state in what he calls "liquor's black belt"—New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

In an interview with NEA Service he made these predictions:

"Within five or six years we will have broken the political backbone of booze and checked all serious efforts to change the dry law.

"Within another five or six years the bootleggers will be so generally in jail or in terror that the Volstead act will not be broken any more than other laws are.

"After that it will take 15 years for complete education of the people, especially those of foreign birth or extraction respecting the nature and effect of alcohol to the point where prohibition will no longer be either an issue or a problem."

Anderson thinks prohibition really will be here in 1947. Perhaps earlier—but 1947 is his conservative estimate.

"Magazine straw votes don't bother us," he said. "Nor does the growing agitation for beer and light wine. There isn't one chance in 100 of the Volstead act being changed."

Qualifying, he added: "But if it is changed—mark you, it will only be temporary."

Consumption of alcohol has dropped to 10 or 20 per cent compared with pre-prohibition days, Anderson estimates. The number of drinkers, he thinks, has decreased almost as much.

WILLIAM H. ANDERSON

Intelligent And Broad
Visioned "Dry" Worker
Gives Reasons For
His Predictions.

"I haven't any illusions about Congressmen and legislators," he said. "I know lots of those who vote dry are wet personally. They're honest of they vote according to the sentiment of their constituents."

"Politicians and the public generally will eventually get it through their heads that anarchy is the only alternative to enforcement and observance."

The Anti-Saloon League will be necessary, Anderson says, through most of—and perhaps all—of the 25 years necessary to make prohibition prohibitive.

"It will cost more, too," he said, "because we now have two jobs where we formerly had one. These are: first, to hold the law by electing dry Congressmen and state legislators; and second, to enforce the law by organizing the public to get behind the regularly constituted local enforcement authorities—back up good officials, jack up the others."

"We are pushing a three-fold plan; First, community enrollment for enforcement through the newly formed 'Allied Citizens of America, Inc.' forcing everyone to take a definite stand either for or against law and order; second, enacting an enforcement ordinance in every community; third, applying the 'Yonkers Plan' where enforcement is lax, by co-operating with officials if they will enforce the law, or focusing publicity upon them if they won't."

Anderson says New York state already has 250,000 members of the Allied Citizens of America, and the enrollment campaign is just beginning.

"When the light is turned on all decent people will come in," he said. "There are prominent bankers, lawyers, manufacturers, and even a few preachers, who by opposing prohibition have placed themselves in the same category with troway whiskered anarchists. When they see that through ignorance or prejudice they have lined up with the criminals they will come in out of the wet."

CLASSIFIED ADS FOR EVERYBODY

One Cent Per Word For Each Insertion Minimum Charge Twenty-Five Cents

WANTED

WANTED—100 miners for our mines near Windber, Pa. Steady work good working conditions, good wages. 42 inches of coal. Empty houses for families. American and foreign boarding houses for single men. Write Ines Coal Co., Windber, Pa., Somerset, Co. 8/15-tf-ch

WANTED—Lady to keep house for gentleman. Call at 116 N. Third street after 6 p. m. 8/22-6t-ch

WANTED—Twenty-five coal miners to load machine cutcoal at Nichols, Pa., on the B. & P. R. R. $1.10 per ton. Best of conditions. J. O. Taylor, Nichols, Armstrong county, Pa. 8/23-3t-pd

WANTED—Saw mill men, woodsmen and teamsters. See J. Ed Miller, Cherry street, before noon tomorrow. 8/26-1t-pd

WANTED—Kitchen girls at the Dimeling Hotel at once. Apply Dimeling Hotel. 8/26-tf-ch

WANTED—A number of laborers. Apply at new plant, Clearfield Machine Shops. 8/26-2t-pd

WANTED—To rent six or seven-room house, with all conveniences. Inquire Estep Motor Co., East End. 8/26-3t-pd

WANTED—Men for State road work. Good wages. Apply Johnson & Kearns office, Woodland. 8/21-6t-ch

WANTED—Girls at the Clearfield Laundry. 8/24-6t-ch

WANTED—Agents, Sell the original Watkins Products. Good city territory still open. Get our wonderful offer and free samples. The J. R. Watkins Co., Dept. 79, New York, N. Y. 8/5 12 19 26 pd

WANTED—A young lady who has had stenographic experience. Permanent position for competent party. Application to be made by letter only. Address Stenographer, c/o Progress. 8/24-3t-ch

FOR SALE

Fifty-acre farm, two and one-half miles from Clearfield. Twenty-five acres first and second growth timber. House contains kitchen, pantry, living room, dining room, four bedrooms, three clothes presses. Lawn, well water. Bank barn 25x48 feet. Hen house 10x12 ft. Hog house 16 x 16 ft. 28 apple trees, 14 cherry trees, 14 peach trees, 10 plum trees, 4 pear trees, 6 grape arbors. For full particulars call or see C. G. BLOOM, Real Estate and Insurance, 215 West Fifth Ave. Bell 141-M 8/21-tf-ch

FOR SALE—Rugs in good condition, one new and one used. Also some furniture. Inquire of Progress or phone H. & C. 323-J-3. 8/25-10t-ch

FOR SALE—Second hand bicycle in good condition. Inquire Guellich Barber Shop, Third street. 8/26-2t-ch

FOR SALE—Farm of 27 acres near Litz Bridge; 2 houses and outbuildings; 15 acres young growing timber. Call Clearfield Progress for particulars. 8/22-24-26-28-pd

FOR SALE—Four high grade young cows, five young cattle, and one 1917 Ford truck in good condition. Matthew Durkee, Pottersdale, Pa. 8/25-4t-ch

FOR SALE—Fine saddle horse. Inquire John Ward Co. Contractors, Grampian, Pa. 8/23-15t-pd

FOR SALE

The imported Guernsey cow, Imp. Le Mains Select III, born May 1, 1919, her yearling daughter sired by Pencoyd Champion, and her 3-week-old calf whose sire is from an advanced register cow whose record is 500 pounds butterfat. It is desired to sell the three animals together as they are excellent material for foundation purposes. This stock may be seen by appointment in DuBois. DR. S. M. DAVENPORT, 131 E. DuBois Ave., DuBois, Pa. 8/16-23t-ch

FOR SALE—One team of mares. 1 Black; 1 bay. Weigh between 1100 and 1200, age 5 and 6 years. Will sell as a team or singly. They are sound and in good shape. The price is right for a quick buyer. W. F. Powell. 8/21-6t-ch

We Will Have Week-End Specials

Even though Dollar Day depleted our stocks to some extent, we had made adequate preparations for it and will be ready for you with our regular week-end specials.

You will find as good an array of candies awaiting you for your Sunday sweets as usual.

VIRGINIA CHOCOLATE SHOP

FOR SALE—My residence on Irvin Hill, consisting of 6 room house and pantry. Equipped with electric lights, bath room and hot air furnace. Three lots in plot. Large chicken house. Fruit trees, cement walks. Price $3,000. Harry G. Gates, Clearfield, Pa. 8/24-25-26-28-30 9/2

FOR SALE—Sweet corn and tomatoes for canning, also canning beets. Call W. A. Collins, H. & C. 266-W-3. 8/24-6t-ch

FOR SALE—5 - passenger Dodge. Will sell reasonably or will take a horse in exchange. Inquire Irvin Tubbs, Taylor Bros. & Koozer's Saw Mill, Lick Run. 8/24-3t-pd

FOR SALE—Ford roadster, 1920 model, electrically equipped, in good running condition. A bargain to quick buyer. Inquire by letter "R," care of Progress. 8/24-2t-ch

FOR SALE—A yellow rood goat in fine condition. A bargain to quick buyer. John Weinger, near Reed street. 8/24-3t-pd

FOR SALE—150 old and young chickens, 1 cow 6 years old, 1 incubator, 1 brooder, 1 piano. Sell extra cheap. Gordon truck and implements. Must sell quickly. Ed Gill, Glen Richy, Pa. 8/24-3t-pd

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—4-room house with light. Inquire Mrs. Hartwick Logan 501 Sixth St., East End. 8/25-tf-ch

FOR RENT—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping. Call 120 Cemetery Road. 8/25-tf-ch

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Now is the time to have your coal lands tested. We have a drill in your vicinity and would be pleased to quote you prices. Call us on the phone: H. & C. 38-E, Bell 43. 8/24-5t-ch

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR A YOUNG MAN

We are appointing a few additional young energetic salesmen to sell Derryvale Housekeeping Linens in small towns to the Retail Dry Goods Stores. It is not necessary to have experience as a traveling salesman, but you must have Retail Dry Goods experience and are required to travel the small towns in the surrounding territory. To the right person we will advance reasonable traveling expenses against commission. When applying give full particulars as to your experience, covering the last three years, also references. Apply in writing to Derryvale Linen Company, 23 East 22nd Street, New York City.

PIANO RECITAL IN WINBURNE

The recital given by the piano pupils of Miss Ruth Newton in the Presbyterian church Friday evening was a very charming affair and afforded genuine pleasure to the large audience. Miss Newton, a senior of Wilson College and a gifted musician is to be congratulated on the wonderful progress her young pupils have made during the summer, and on her success as a teacher.

Alma Litke, the most advanced pupil, played a beautiful piece in an accomplished manner. Elizabeth Thorp and Helen Thomas rendered solos in fine style. The remaining six or eight performers were tiny tots and beginners and all acquitted themselves well and showed signs of careful tutoring.

Several jolly musical games taken part in by seven very small dainty maidens, each song being accompanied on the piano by a pupil, concluded the very attractive program.

Thackeray's Secret

Trackeray defied all rules. His wonderful eye saw everything and everybody. He lived and enjoyed life with an absolutely unimpaired and childlike zest, and his brave, simple, tender spirit endured to the end. Where other men are connoisseurs of fine flavors and delicate nuances Thackeray was a connoisseur of the broadest and biggest things of life—its pathos, its absurdity, its courage, its loyalty.

Acquiring Ability

The very best way to get ability is to do thoroughly whatever you do. Master every detail of work that falls to your lot.—Selected.

LEGAL

SHERIFF'S SALE Of Valuable Real Estate By Virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pa., and to be directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale in the Arbitrator Room, in the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield, on Friday, September 1, 1922, at 10:30 A. M., the following described property, to wit: To be sold on the writ of Fieri Facias on Friday, the first day of September, at 10:30 A. M. All that certain lot or parcel of ground situate in the Township of Lawrence, County of Clearfield, and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: to wit: Beginning at a post corner of land of Amos L. Hess and being four hundred and four feet east from the intersection of the road leading from Clearfield to Litz Bridge and from Clearfield to Clover Hill; thence by line of said Amos Hess south two hundred ten feet to a post thence east one hundred and four feet to a post; thence north two hundred and ten feet to a post on line of public road leading to Litz Bridge; thence by line of said road west one hundred and four feet to post and place of beginning. Containing one-half acre, more or less and being the same premises which W. P. Hess by deed dated October 1, 1921 and recorded in Deed Book 251 page 5, conveyed to said Frank F. Ruffner.

Having erected thereon a one and one-half story frame house and necessary outbuildings.

Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Frank F. Ruffner, with notice to Gertrude Ruffner and Carl Ruffner, terre tenants.

Terms of Sale:

The price or sum at which the property shall be struck off must be paid at the time of the sale, or such other arrangement as shall be approved, otherwise the property will be put up and sold again at the risk and expense of the person to whom it was struck off, and who, in case of deficiency at such re-sale, shall make good the same and in no instance will the deed be presented for confirmation unless the money is actually paid to the Sheriff's Office. 8/10-17-24-31ch 8/5-12-19-26ch

BIDS WANTED

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received up until September 11, 1922 for the furnishing of coal to the Clearfield Hospital for a period of one year beginning October 1, 1922. Bidders are requested to designate vein of coal upon which mining operations are had and give net ton price delivered.

Bids may be left with the undersigned. H. B. HARTSWICK, Secretary. 8/26 9 2-9-ch

SHERIFF'S SALE

On Valuable Real Estate By Virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pa., and to be directed, there will be exposed for Public Sale in the Arbitrator Room, in the Court House, Clearfield Borough on Friday, September 1, 1922, at 10:30 o'clock A. M. the following described property, to wit: To be sold on a writ of Fieri Facias on Friday, September 1, 1922 at 10:30 A. M.

All that certain piece of land situate in the Township of Brady, County of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, described as follows:

Beginning at a post at corner of lands of R. H. Moore and the Public Road leading to Luthersburg; thence by line of said Public Road N. 9° 24' E. seven hundred thirty-three and nine-tenths feet to a post; thence still by line of said Public Road N. 23° 35' E. twenty-four and five-tenths feet to a post at lands of the DuBois Brewing Company; thence by line of lands of the DuBois Brewing Company S. 89° 20' East nine hundred and sixty feet to a stone at other lands of the DuBois Brewing Company; thence by line of lands of the said DuBois Brewing Company S. 0° 15' W. one thousand three and two tenths feet to a post at lands of R. H. Moore; thence by line of lands of R. H. Moore N. 89° 30' E. eleven hundred seventy-five feet to a post at Public Road first mentioned; thence by line of said Public Road containing twenty-three and eighty seven one-hundredths acres, more or less. Being the same land as described in mortgage of the said Alvah A. Shafer and Elsie G. Shafer to Laura E. Wachob, dated 13th of September, 1917, recorded at Clearfield in Mortgage Book 56, page 306.

Having thereon erected a small shed

FARM FOR SALE

I offer the following farm and its contents for sale at a real bargain to a quick buyer. Just the farm for any man to make a good investment and start in farming.

Farm known as the James Norman farm, located in Lawrence township near O'Shanter, Pa. Five minute walk to New York Central station.

Acreage, 85.

50 acres cleared in good state of cultivation. 35 acres in woodland estimated as follows: 30,000 props. 13,000 motor ties. 9,000 feet hemlock. 16,000 feet of pine. 10,000 feet of hardwood. 200 Railroad ties.

This farm is underlaid with three seams of coal, namely B, C, and C Prime good workable seams.

Good eight-room house practically new. Good barn forty feet square. Two good work horses that weigh 1,500 each. Two good milk cows. Four head of young cattle. Seventy-five chickens, two hogs, wagon and harness, corn, plow, and mowing machine, and various other implements too numerous to mention. Twelve tons of timothy and clover hay in the barn. Two hundred and twenty dozen of oats, five acres of good corn. Five and one-half of good buckwheat. Three acres of good wheat, one and one-half acres of potatoes.

Good peach orchard on the farm. Good apple orchard on the farm. Good spring water on the farm. Running water in the house. House is illuminated by acetylene gas.

For particulars communicate by letter or by phone, Room 6, Penn Public Service Building, both phones: H. & C., 492, Bell, 194, Clearfield, Pa.

Isaac H. Robinson 8/15-tf-ch

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Greenville, Pa., Aug. 24. (U. P.)—Old Salem Cemetery, resting place of the only woman whose two sons were governor of two states at the same time—Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania and Governor Pattison of California, is being restored under direction of local civic organizations. The cemetery which has not been in use for some years, also was the resting place of soldiers who served in the revolutionary war and the war of 1812.

The above news dispatch appeared in the daily papers of the State today and while it recites a remarkable circumstance, it is not altogether correct. So far as we know, however the only wrong statement in the paragraph is the claim that Mrs. Pattison was the only woman whose two sons were Governors of two states at the same time. The facts as recorded in Pennsylvania history show that while she possessed that unusual honor she was not the first woman to be so honored.

The honor of being the first woman whose sons were governors of two states at the same time also happened to be a Pennsylvanian. She was the mother of the late Governor William Bigler, one of Clearfield's most illustrious sons and a man whose name and achievements were closely interwoven with much of the constructive history of the Keystone state during the trying times immediately preceding and following the Civil war.

William Bigler was elected Governor of Pennsylvania at the fall election in 1851 and strange to say his elder brother John Bigler was chosen governor of the State of California at the same time. Governor Bigler died in 1880, aged 66 years, 7 months and 8 days. We publish the following biography of this great Pennsylvanian, in which the incident referred to in the opening paragraph of this article is shown.

WILLIAM BIGLER

A Democrat of the Old School and His Struggle for Public Service

William Bigler was born at Shermansburg, Cambria county, Pa., in December, 1813. His parents, Jacob and Susan Dock, sister of Judge Dock, of Harrisburg, were of German descent and were educated, like most children of their origin, in both the German and English tongues. While very young his parents removed to Mercer county, having purchased a large tract of wild land, in the hope of building up their fortunes; but the title proving defective, they found themselves in a short time bereft of everything but a small farm. The children had a severe struggle with life and William drifted into a printing office. From 1830 to 1833 he was employed by his brother John, in the office of the Centre Democrat, published at Bellefonte. At the end of that period, influenced by the advice of his friends, among whom was Andrew G. Curtin, since Governor of the Commonwealth, he decided, though not without many misgivings, to remove to Clearfield and commence the publication of a political paper. Young Bigler had no money, but he possessed about everything else requisite to the publication of a paper. With the aid of friends he secured some old type and a second-hand and a mine opening. Seized, into execution and to be sold as the property of Alvah A. Shafer and Elsie G. Shafer.

Terms of Sale

The price or sum at which the property shall be struck off must be paid at the time of the sale, or such other arrangements made as will be approved, otherwise the property will be immediately put up and sold again at the expense and risk of the person to whom it was struck off, and who, in case of deficiency at such re-sale, shall make good the same, and in no instance will the deed be presented for confirmation unless the money is actually paid to the Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office. 8/12-19-26-30ch Aug. 10, 1922.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

In the estate of Charitia L. Shoemaker, late of the township of Morris, county of Clearfield, Pa., deceased.

Letters testamentary having been granted the undersigned, all persons owing said estate are asked to settle at once and all persons having claims against said estate should present same, duly authenticated, without delay.

FRANK T. WATKINS, Executor, Morrisdale, Pa. 8/19-26 9/2-9-16-23-pd.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

In the estate of Susan Curran, late of Morris township, Clearfield County, Pa., deceased.

Letters testamentary having been granted to the undersigned, all persons having claims against said estate should present same, duly authenticated, for prompt settlement.

FRANK T. WATKINS, Executor, Morrisdale, Pa. 8/19-26 9/2-9-16-23-pd.

press; then as he used to say he "started an eight-by-ten Jackson paper to counteract the influence of a seven-by-nine Whig paper which had preceded him into that mountain region." This new paper was called the Clearfield Democrat. Bigler did nearly all the work, writing the editorials, setting the type and working the old hand press. With all these drawbacks the publication was a very spirited one, but it was not a source of immediate wealth. He was deep in politics, however, and soon acquired a reputation for good judgment and sincerity. His uniform courtesy toward everybody made him a general favorite, and it is said of him that he was a real backwoodsman, a good hunter and the best marksman with a rifle in all the county—accomplishments which in those days by no means detracted from his influence as a political leader.

In 1836 or shortly after Mr. Bigler, having married a daughter of Alexander B. Reed, of Clearfield, disposed of his paper and entered into partnership with his father-in-law in mercantile business. He engaged in his new pursuit with his usual industry and energy and in a brief period placed himself in the front rank of the merchants and dealers in lumber in that section. From 1845 to 1850 he was by far the largest producer of lumber or square timber on the west branch of the Susquehanna river. But his previous active participation in politics and his well-known views on public questions kept him prominently before the people. He was an ardent advocate of a convention to amend the State Constitution and was presented from his county as a delegate to that body, but he declined to be a candidate.

In 1841 he was nominated for the State Senate, and, though much to his pecuniary disadvantage, he accepted the nomination. The district was composed of the counties of Armstrong, Indiana, Cambria and Clearfield and he was elected by a majority of over 3,000. Though opposed by a regularly nominated candidate of the Whig party he received every vote in Clearfield county save one, a result unprecedented in the history of politics. The term of service upon which he now entered covered a period of unusual difficulty in the management of the affairs of the State. He was elected Speaker of the Senate in the spring of 1843, was re-elected at the opening of the session of 1844, and in October following was returned for a second term. Mr. Bigler did not desire again to be a candidate, and so declined was he to continuing in public life, that he had instructed the delegates from Clearfield to the nominating convention to withdraw his name, which they did but the delegates from the other counties composing the district conferred the nomination on him notwithstanding, and he was elected by a vote much larger than the regular party vote. In 1848 his name was presented as a candidate for Governor, and he received a large vote in the Democratic Nominating Convention of that year; but the choice fell upon Morris Longstreth, then a Canal Commissioner, who was defeated by William F. Johnson. In 1849 Mr. Bigler was appointed one of the Revenue Commissioners, whose duty it was to adjust the amount to be raised by taxation in the different sections and counties of the State.

(Continued Till Monday.)

THE STOCK REPORT

New York, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Traders with bearish tendencies tried to expel the uncertainty felt in the financial community over the proposals of the Government to secure legislation authorizing taking over of the anthracite mines and such railroads as are unable to meet traffic demands. Their success in bringing about lower levels was confined to Baldwin and one or two other speculative leaders on which they centered their efforts. Prices on the general list were steady. New highs were registered in Continental Can, Liggett & Myers American Tobacco, North American and Consolidated Gas.

American Locomotive	119
American Sumatra Tobacco	155
Baldwin Loco	126
Baltimore & Ohio	58
Bethlehem B	78
Central Leather	41 1/4
Cruikshank Steel	93 1/4
General Motors	14
Great Northern Ry.	93
Lackawanna	80 1/4
Lehigh Valley	68 1/2
Middle States Oil	13 1/2
Midvale Steel	35 1/2
N. Y. C.	98 1/2
N. Y. C.	46 1/4
Pennsylvania	32 1/2
Sinclair Oil	129 1/4
Studebaker	48
Texas Co.	57 1/4
U. S. Rubber	105
U. S. Steel	6 1/2
Willis Overland	3
Call money
Liberty Bonds Closing.
Liberty 3 1/2's	100.66
Liberty 2nd 4 1/2's	100.20
Liberty 3rd 4 1/2's	100.40
Liberty 4th 4 1/2's	100.66
Victory 4 1/2's	100.03

Tom Sims SAYS--

Only four more shopping months until Christmas.

This is the age of machines. Some machines even elect men.

Your sins may find you out, but your collectors sometimes find you in. When she hasn't a thing to wear, she calls it a bathing suit.

Collars are a dollar a dozen in Pearl, but probably need stroping every hundred miles.

Michigan woman had 111 operations. Guess what she talked about?

One at school beats nine at pool. Drawback about living in a swell neighborhood is acting bored.

Sometimes we think girls are like salads. All about the same except different dressings.

If ignorance is bliss, a man with an ivory dome is solid comfort.

The question of the hour is "What time is it?"

Ohio man shot himself because he had a wife too many. We don't know how many he had.

Two's a crowd and three's a mob according to Kansas laws.

They close so tight on Sunday in Piqua, O., several Pique men want to change the "a" to "e".

Chief Radknife won't let his squaws dance all night. Shake, Red.

Beauty hint: Stay at home with your hay fever.

Just Wanted to Know.

We were out to dinner and little brother piped up, just as the meal was about over: "Father, please pass the jelly, or is it scenery?"—Chicago Tribune.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

YOUNGEST CLEARFIELD COUNTY LAWYER

The baby member of the Clearfield County Bar is Thomas Allen, Esq., of DuBois. Tom Allen is the son of ex-Postmaster and Mrs. Con Allen, and is a promising young attorney already admitted to the practise of law in the State and United States Supreme Court. Shortly after Judge Bell opened court this morning, his son Cortes Bell, Esq., arose and moved that Thomas Allen be admitted to the practise of the law in the several courts of Clearfield county. Judge Bell carried through the necessary formula, the oath was administered and Mr. Allen was soon entitled to use the proud title of baby member of the Clearfield County Bar. Ex-Postmaster Con Allen of DuBois was present and witnessed the ceremony incident to his son's admission to the bar.

—Try Our Business Printing Dept.—

Take Care OF YOUR Kidneys

The source of many ills has been traced to the Kidneys and Bladder. When these organs function properly there is much less chance for Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Lame Back and Similar Ailments

ALBERT'S

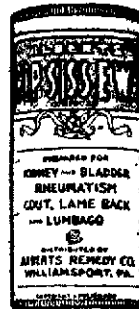

PIP'SISS EWA

Is the Sure Remedy for Kidney Troubles

In the days of our forefathers PIP'SISS EWA was the one herb with which they were all familiar. For ages it has been known as a sure remedy for Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Albert's Genuine Pip Siss Ewa is an old-time remedy put up in modern day form—the handy tablet form that is most convenient for all uses. Full eighteen days treatment costs but 75 cents.

Accept No Substitute—Ask for ALBERT'S GENUINE PIP'SISS EWA

On Sale in Clearfield by C. R. BLOOM, Druggist.

THE BUFFET LUNCH

No. 2 Nichols Street

SPECIAL FOR SUNDAY DINNER

CANTALOUPE
CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP
PICKLES CELERY OLIVES

ROAST SPRING DUCKLING
With Filling

ROAST PORK
With Apple Sauce

MASHED POTATOES
CREAMED NEW BEETS
CUCUMBER AND TOMATO SALAD

PIE CAKE ICE CREAM
TEA COFFEE MILK
ICED TEA

65c

©1921 A.S.M.HUTCHINSON

BEGIN HERE TODAY
In the summer of 1914, MARK SABRE finds that he is estranged from human sympathy and understanding with the sole exception of

LADY NONA TYBAR, an old sweet-heart, now happily married. Sabre's broom and an obnoxious wife. MABEL fails to understand her husband's poetic and whimsical temperament. In business he is undermined by jealous associates in the firm of Fortune, East and Sabre and a promised partnership is diverted from him to TYBARING. At this point, Nona's life with Tybar becomes intolerable and she asks Sabre to take her away. War is declared and Sabre rushes to secure a commission. He speaks to Colonel Rattray of the Pinks.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Eh? Into what?"
"The war." It was easier, after the plunge, "I see in the papers that civilians are being given commissions by recommendation. Can you get me a commission?"

Colonel Rattray showed surprise. "Well, I don't know. I might give you a commission, if you're eligible. How old are you, Sabre?"

"Thirty-six."
Colonel Rattray said doubtfully, "Come on up to the mess in the morning and I'll get our doctor to have a look at you. Then we'll see what can be done. All right, eh?"

III

He said nothing to Mabel of his intention. It was just precisely the sort of thing he could not possibly discuss with Mabel. Mabel would say, "Whyever should you?" and of all imaginable ordeals the idea of exposing before Mabel his feeling about England . . . he would tell her when it was done, if it came off.

And his thought was, when a few hours later he was walking slowly away from his interview with Major Earnshaw, the doctor at the barracks, "Thank God, I never said anything to Mabel about it."

Major Earnshaw had very pleasantly "had a go at this heart of yours." Withdrawn his stethoscope and shaken his head. It was "no go; absolutely none, Sabre."

"Well, but that's for a commission. I'll go into the ranks."
"You can't possibly go in as you are now. The standards will probably be reduced, but they'll have to be reduced a goodish long way before you'll get in. I don't mind telling you."

IV

Then came another of the frightful undings of his emotions. The occasion was that of his meeting with Harkness outside the County Times office. Harkness was a captain of the battalion that had gone out who had been left behind owing to some illness. The British Expeditionary Force had been in action.

Sabre said, "News? Anything about the Pinks?"
Harkness nodded. He seemed to be swallowing. Then he said, "Yes, the regiment. Pretty bad."

Sabre said, "Any one—?" and also stopped.
Harkness looked, not at Sabre, but straight across the top of his head and began an appalling, and as it seemed to Sabre, an endless recitative. "The Colonel's killed. Bruce is killed. O'way's killed—"

"O'way's killed. Bullen's killed—"
Endless! The names struck Sabre like successive blows. Were they never going to end?

"Carmichael's killed. My young brother's—" his voice cracked—"killed. Sikes is killed."
"Sikes killed . . . And your brother . . ."

Harkness said in a very thin, squeaking voice, "Yes, the regiment's pretty well—The regiment's—"
He looked full at Sabre and said in a very loud, defiant voice, "I bet they were magnificent. Oh, my God, why the hell wasn't I there?" He turned abruptly and went away, walking rather faintly.

This was the moment at which there descended upon Sabre, never to leave him while he remained in "it," the appalling sense of oppression that the war exercised upon him. On his brain like a weight, on his heart like a pressing hand

And still events; still, and always, now, disturbing things.

While he stood there he was suddenly aware of Young Rod, Pole or Perch, rather luxuriously come up. "I say, Sabre, have you heard this frightful news about the Pinks?—I want you to talk to my mother. She'll listen to you. I'm going to enlist."

Sabre said, "Good Lord are you, Perch? Must you? Your mother, why, what on earth will she do without you? She'll—"
Young Perch winced painfully. "I know. It pretty well kills me to think of it and I'm having the most frightful scenes with her. But I've thought it all out, Sabre, and I know I'm doing the right thing. This is, well, this is a chap's country, and I've figured it out it's got to come before my mother. It's got to. She says it will kill her if I go. I believe it will, Sabre."

He rubbed a hand across his eyes and broke off. "Never mind about that; I know what I've got to do. You know lots of people. Well, I want to get hold of some nice girl to live with in my place while I'm away. A sort of companion, aren't they called? I want someone who my mother will indignantly call a bit of a child—he gave rather a broken little laugh—"can't I hear her say ing 'I'll say, Sabre, do for God's sake help me. Do you know anyone—"

This frightful war! Was it going to attack even that pathetic little old woman at Puncer's Farm with her combing hands and her frail existence centered solely in her son? He said, "I'm awfully sorry, Perch. Frightfully sorry for your mother, and for you. I'll help you all I can. It's a funny coincidence but I believe I do know just the very girl that would be what you want—"

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Encouraged the favorable impression previously formed among his colleagues since he entered the Senate. Senator Davis Elkins of West Virginia, who also saw military service during the war, is listed as "doubtful" on the bonus.

Senator Reed took the position that ex-service men were "more anxious to see the National debt paid and the burden of taxation reduced than they are to see a bonus granted."

He had told friends, half in jest, it was his purpose to "lay low" and say nothing in the Senate at least until elected a full-fledged member of that body in his own right.

His maiden speech, though short,

Send in your Red Envelope

McCarty's

ICE CREAMS ARE ALL WE CLAIM FOR THEM THESE DAYS. MADE OF REAL CREAM AND FRESH FRUIT FLAVORS.

McCarty's

Real Ice Cream.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY COLLY-YOUR BROTHER IS UPAN OUT EARLY THIS MORNIN'

THE DARLING BOY!

HE MUST HAVE SOMETHING ON HIS MIND!

IT'S A PITY YOU ARE NOT MORE LIKE HIM!

STOP YOUR LECTURE-MAGGIE-UNTIL I ANSWER THE DOOR!

WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE MAGGIE'S BROTHER.

HAND HIM OVER!

8-26

Copyright, 1922, by Int'l Feature Service, Inc.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE

STRANGERS, VISITORS & COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS

Spending Sunday in Clearfield,

Are SPECIALLY invited to WORSHIP in

Trinity Methodist Church, Second and Walnut Streets.

Training the Child.

There is a common belief that a child, when left alone, or to its own resources, is resting mentally. It is true, he would remain a total stranger to the rest of the world, whereas he is like a traveler in life, who observes and comments upon everything that is new to him. He not only makes spontaneous effort to understand, but to imitate.—Doctor Montessori.

First Field Day

Continued from Page One

eloquent manner. Mr. Dale's subject was "Why a Field Day?", which he explained clearly and concisely to his audience, sending them away with a new impression of what Sunday School Field Day means and of what it may mean in the future. He was followed by the Rev. B. H. Conley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who offered up a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to the Master for all of his great goodness and watchful care over the people of this community and those who had come as visitors. S. C. Watts, president of the Clearfield County Sunday School Association, was then introduced and gave an able and comprehensive talk on Sunday school work in general. The principal address was then made by Rev. E. C. Keboch, of Harrisburg, a Sunday school efficiency expert. His remarks were timely, convincing his hearers that he was thoroughly conversant with his theme and Sunday school work in general. A short breathing spell was then proclaimed and all proceeded to partake of a hearty noontide repast and rest in the shade until the afternoon program was announced.

At 12:30 the afternoon program was started off by a concert by the Boys Marine Band. The concert, consisting of eight numbers, opened with a march, "Wreath of Victory," and closed with "America." From 1:30 to 2 o'clock, the American Legion Band occupied the time in rendering one of their most delightful concerts, principally of a sacred character and suitable for the time and occasion. The special choir of over two hundred voices, under the direction of Prof. Oscar W. Schaffer, of Clearfield, then entertained the audience for almost a half hour with a program of church melodies. Rev. E. C. Keboch once again addressed the people in a half-hour talk, followed by chorus numbers with orchestral accompaniment.

Then came the athletic program of 15 events, as follows: boys' swimming race, plunge for distance, dive for distance, greased pole contest, three-legged race, sack race, ladies' nail driving contest, pie-eating contest, flour-blowing contest, shoe race, ladies' 50-yard dash, fat men's race, boys' 100-yard dash, 100-yard dash for all, horse shoes for all. Every one of these events was pulled off according to schedule, and under the management of our own Dick Lantz, furnished loads of amusement and laughter.

At 3:30 the base ball game came off, the contestants being the home team and one from our neighboring town of Glen Richey. It was a nip-and-tuck battle from start to finish, the visitors losing on errors of the last two innings, 6 to 7. The Glen Richey boys took their defeat like veterans and left the field with a thought of "better luck next time."

A concert by the famous Grampian Band had been scheduled for 4:30 but owing to circumstances over which the leader and instructor, Mr. Walter Doughman, had no control, the band was unable to come to Clearfield, much as that organization so desired to do. The American Legion Band, under J. M. McKinley, substituted with an impromptu program of eight numbers, which was enjoyed immensely by the audience.

In closing, the writer cannot help but give great credit to the ladies who devoted their time and energy in giving the children every advantage in having a good time. The ladies having this particular work in hand were Mrs. Obe Bloom, Mrs. Margaret Eckbert, Mrs. Harry Kittleberger, Mrs. Al Frank and Mrs. Ernie Benson. The Red Cross workers, under the supervision of Miss Witherow, also deserve credit for the manner in which they treated those who visited the tent for first aid.

Sunday School District No. 2, under whose auspices this field day was held, is composed of 19 schools, divided as follows: Clearfield, six; Grampian, two; Glen Richey, four; Pike Township, four; Penn township, two; Lumber City, one. It is confidently expected as a result of Thursday's field day that a half dozen more schools will be added to this list before the next three months roll away. A movement is now on foot to make this field day at Irvin Park a regular yearly occurrence.

Sunday School Field Day, as explained to us by one who is well schooled in the real meaning of the term, "is unique in its character and purpose, being a new idea of advancement in the great work of the Sabbath school. Its purpose is to give instruction for the promotion of efficiency, to establish popularity and prestige, to institute a day of recreation and enjoyment, and to instill into the minds of everybody a desire to get better acquainted with the great principle of real living laid down by Jesus Christ. May the interest in Field Day and the work of the Sunday schools grow and continue to grow year by year until we shall all be able to grasp new visions of true life, to the end that Jesus may be a partner in business, in every home, and in our recreations as well."

We have been requested by President John A. Dale to announce that there will be a meeting of the members of the district officers in the M. E. church, Clearfield, next Tuesday evening, at which time reports will be heard as well as new officers elected.

34 Potato Growers

Continued from Page One

"and when she sold us this seed we felt we had a right to plant same regardless of all other storms and signs," but when told the great State of Pennsylvania was giving instead of taking orders, the potato farmer proceeded, with his neighbors, to enter bid for his appearance in Clearfield Wednesday, and will then and there no doubt be called upon to pay the fine of $5 and costs the law requires, while his potato patch will have to be dug up and both vines and potatoes burned to prevent a spread of the disease.

The victims of the phony seed say they purchased seventy bushels of same from Mrs. Mountz's store at a price of $2.30 per bushel and succeeded only in raising a fine crop of trouble.

DUQUESNE RESIDENTS ROUT KU KLUX KLAN

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 26.—Armed with shot guns, clubs and brooms, several hundred men and women, residents of Duquesne Heights, routed about fifteen members of the Ku Klux Klan who were in the act of initiating candidates. After the Klan had beaten a hasty retreat a vigilance committee was organized by the citizens of the community.

Uncle Eben.

"Patience is fine," said Uncle Eben, "if it keeps a man workin'. But it ain't much good if it keeps him stickin' to a crap game."

day evening, at which time reports will be heard as well as new officers elected.

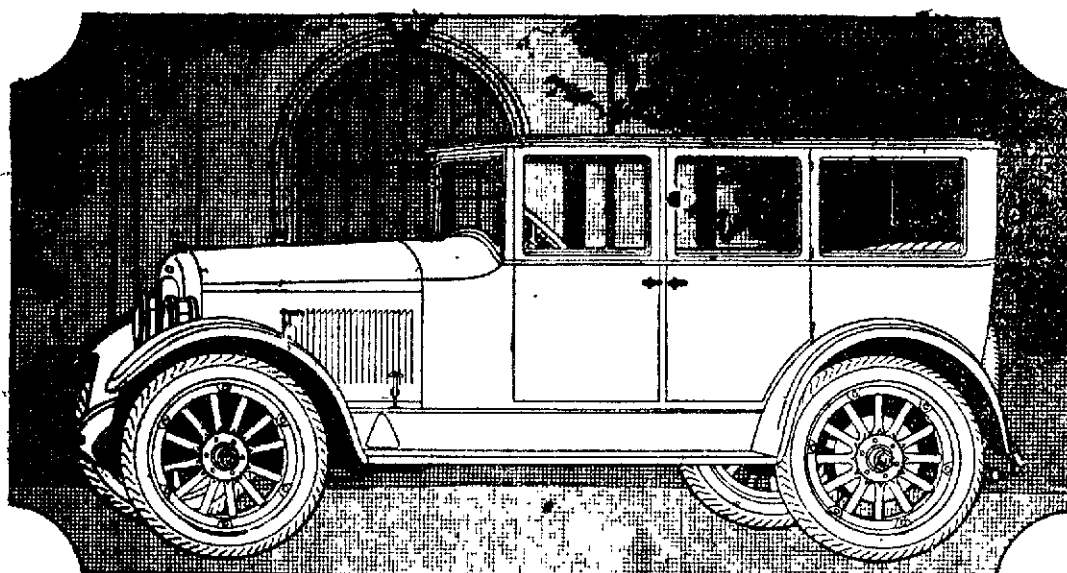

FIRST FIELD DAY

Continued from Page One

eloquent manner. Mr. Dale's subject was "Why a Field Day?", which he explained clearly and concisely to his audience, sending them away with a new impression of what Sunday School Field Day means and of what it may mean in the future. He was followed by the Rev. B. H. Conley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who offered up a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to the Master for all of his great goodness and watchful care over the people of this community and those who had come as visitors. S. C. Watts, president of the Clearfield County Sunday School Association, was then introduced and gave an able and comprehensive talk on Sunday school work in general. The principal address was then made by Rev. E. C. Keboch, of Harrisburg, a Sunday school efficiency expert. His remarks were timely, convincing his hearers that he was thoroughly conversant with his theme and Sunday school work in general. A short breathing spell was then proclaimed and all proceeded to partake of a hearty noontide repast and rest in the shade until the afternoon program was announced.

At 12:30 the afternoon program was started off by a concert by the Boys Marine Band. The concert, consisting of eight numbers, opened with a march, "Wreath of Victory," and closed with "America." From 1:30 to 2 o'clock, the American Legion Band occupied the time in rendering one of their most delightful concerts, principally of a sacred character and suitable for the time and occasion. The special choir of over two hundred voices, under the direc-

A New Standard of Value

Six Cylinders—Four Doors—$1395

Take a look at the Jewett Sedan in the illustration. Have you ever seen smarter lines—more distinctive appearance?

Then remember that it has an all metal body with four doors and the best of coach work. That means no embarrassing rattles or squeaks.

Inside you will find soft, inviting upholstery—broad seats—all those appointments that spell comfort and pride of ownership.

Up under the hood is a fifty horse power, six cylinder motor offering vast reserve power and the smoothest of riding qualities.

Under the body is a superb chassis—as strong as fine engineering can make it—designed and endorsed by the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company.

Could you ask for anything more in appearance, comfort, power and dependability. Then try to realize that all this can be yours for $1395 f. o. b. Detroit.

It is Sold and Serviced by Paige Dealers Everywhere

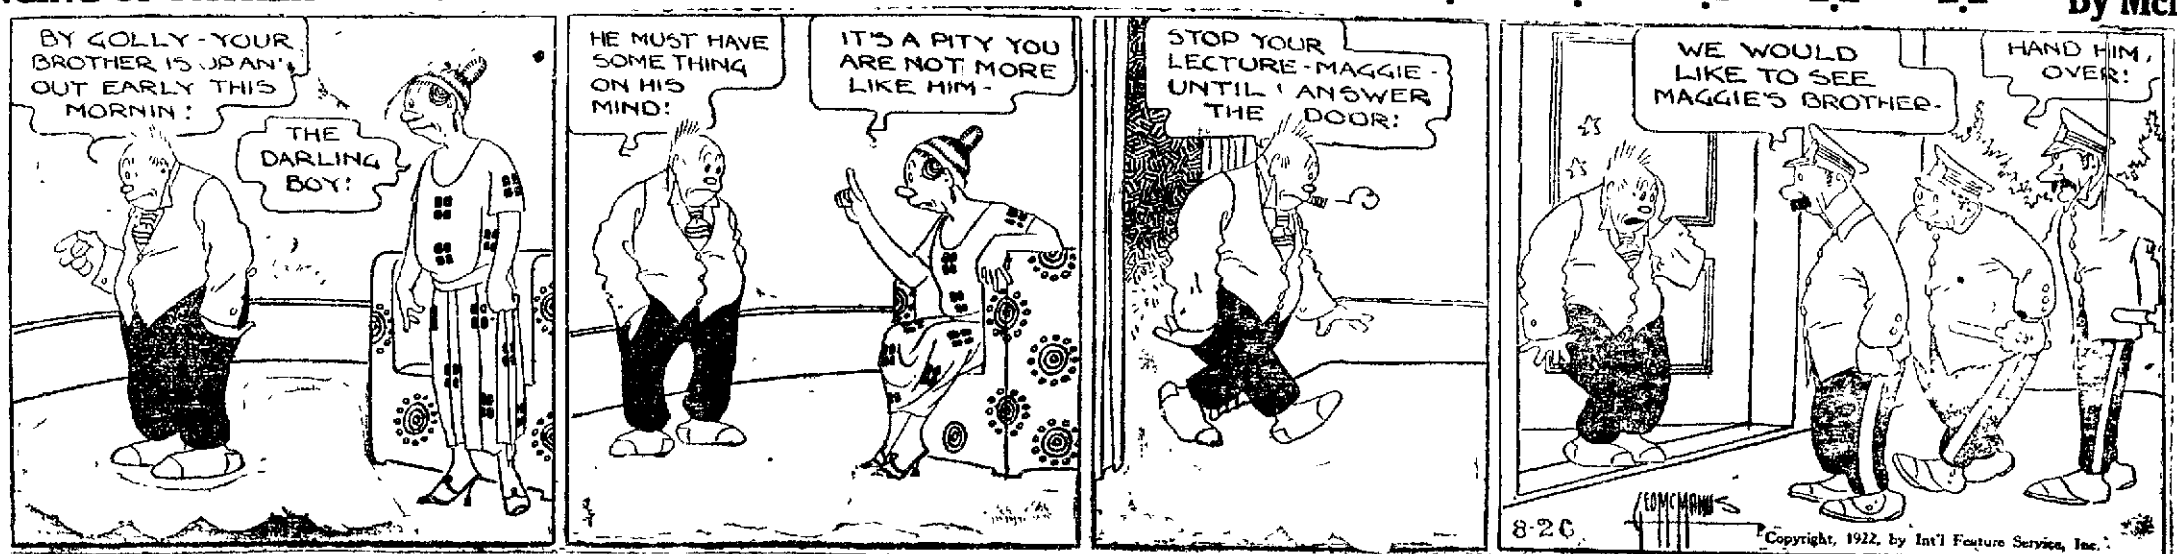

PENN MOTOR SALES CO.

North Third Street

JEWETT

A Thrifty Six Built by Paige

By McManus

8-26

Copyright, 1922, by Int'l Feature Service, Inc.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE

THE CLEARFIELD PROGRESS
Published every day except Sunday by the Progressive Publishing Company, Progress Building, Clearfield, Pennsylvania.
G. ALBERT STEWART, Managing Editor.
J. D. CONNELLY, City Editor R. S. NIGHTINGALE, Adv. Mgr.
A. M. BRAUND, Foreman.
—OFFICERS—
R. H. SOMMERVILLE, President. G. A. STEWART, Sec. and Treas.
H. & C. Telephone No. 176. Bell Phone No. 47.
—TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION BY MAIL—
One Year$4.00 Three Months$1.50
Six Months$3.00 One Month$.50
By Carrier 12 cents per Week Payable to Carrier
Entered in Post Office at Clearfield, Pa., as second class mail matter.

Inspectors of the Pennsylvania Railroad have completed another check upon automobile drivers at selected highway crossing in Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, to determine the extent and character of carelessness display in driving motor cars over railroad tracks. The facts in 831 specific cases of gross negligence have been compiled and analyzed. The following forms of careless driving were noted:

- Failing to look in either direction for trains.
- Disregarding the stop signal of crossing watchmen.
- Driving under crossing gates in front of trains while gates were being lowered.
- Running on crossings before stopping, not having car under control.
- Stalling on the tracks.
- Stopping cars on crossings and turning around on the tracks.
- Paying no attention to the locomotive warning whistles.
- Racing automobiles across the tracks to beat trains.

At one crossing, during a period of 17 hours, 73 cars, bearing license tags from five different states, averaged 37 miles per hour when running across the railroad tracks and in two instances they were making almost a mile a minute.

At another crossing 19 new and inexperienced drivers were observed, 15 tried to "beat" other automobiles across the railroad tracks and one car was driven 25 miles per hour in the dark without lights.

It was not possible to tell how many cars had defective brakes, but four recent accidents at crossings on the Pennsylvania System were ascertained to be due to this cause.

The Pennsylvania Railroad System is working in co-operation with the American Railway Association to reduce the fatalities and other accidents occurring at grade crossings. Seven thousand lives are lost annually in the United States in mishaps of this kind. The railroads of the country are at present conducting a "Careful Crossing Campaign," which started June 1st and will be continued until September 30th, for the sole purpose of urging the American people to "CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
Sunday School
'Lesson'
(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
President of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
Copyright 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 27
NEHEMIAH'S PRAYER
LESSON TEXT—Neh. 1:1-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."
—Jas. 5:16.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Ex. 33:20-34; 1 Sam. 7:6-11; Matt. 9:37, 38; Acts 1:12-14; Eph. 3:14-21.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Nehemiah Talking to God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Prayer of the King's Cupbearer.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Prayer as a Preparation for All Endeavoring.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Prayer and Power.

I. Nehemiah Learns of the Distress of the Captives (vv. 1-3).
1. When (v. 1). Twentieth year of the reign of Artaxerxes (2:1).
2. The month Chisleu corresponds to our December. It was while performing his duty as cupbearer to the Persian king. While in this important position there entered into his heart a desire to honor God and do good to his people. A young man can be true to God in any position in life if he sets his heart on Jesus Christ and communes with Him by prayer and study of God's word. A man may be elevated to a high position, prosper in business, and yet live a life unspotted from the world.

2. By Whom (v. 2). His brother Hanani and certain men of Judah brought him the news. His inquiry shows that though he was prosperous he did not forget his unfortunate brethren. We should never let our success and well-being shut out sympathy for the oppressed and suffering.

3. The Nature of the Distress (v. 3). The wall of Jerusalem was broken down. Its gates were burned with fire and the remnant of the captives were in great affliction and reproach.

II. Nehemiah's Sorrow (v. 4).
The news of his brethren's distress greatly moved Nehemiah. He sat down and wept and mourned several days. He fasted and prayed before God. God's people are so essentially one that the affliction and shame of the one is the affliction and shame of all. No one will ever do much to help a distressed people who does not deeply feel their desolation. Nehemiah's sorrow was not the kind that says "I pity you" and goes on in ways of selfishness without making an effort to help. True pity expresses itself in an effort to help.

III. Nehemiah's Prayer (vv. 5-11).
He knew where to go for help. He took the matter upon his heart to God in prayer. The first and best way to help others is to pray for them. Nehemiah did not merely pray; he left his place at the Persian court and journeyed to Jerusalem and took hold with his own hands. Our prayers and tears must be translated into definite action if we would be of real help to others. Note the characteristics of this prayer.

1. Its Worshipful Spirit (v. 5). He recognized God as the great and terrible One, the Lord God of heaven. True prayer shows that spirit of worship.

2. Its Ground (v. 5). It was on the ground of covenant relation that He besought God. On this ground all who are in Christ Jesus can come and plead before God.

3. It Was Persistent (v. 6). He prayed day and night. God is pleased when His servants are persistent in their pleadings with Him. Those who understand the covenant relation will be importunate in their petitions.

4. It Was Accompanied by Confession of Sin (vv. 6, 7). In this confession he mentioned definitely his sin (v. 7). We should specify the sins which we have committed. Most people when praying are too general in their confessions.

5. He Pleads God's Promises (vv. 8, 9). In our praying we should remind God of His own words. It is when His words abide in us that we can intelligently pray (John 15:17). If we would be successful in our praying we should fill our minds with God's promises.

6. He Pleads Relationship (v. 10). He reminds God that they were His children by redemption. Those who are in Christ are God's children by redemption through His precious blood. The child has a claim upon its father. God's children have a claim upon Him.

7. It Was Intercessory Prayer (v. 11). With intense earnestness he definitely prayed that God would give him favor before the king in order that he might be enabled to help his people. The king's favor was needed in order to enable him to help his brethren. God is able to move the heart of a heathen king and thus further His own cause by means of the prayer of a humble servant.

CHURCHES
WEST SIDE METHODIST EPISCOPAL
William L. Armstrong, Minister.
9:30 a. m., Bible school, H. L. Shaw superintendent.
10:45 a. m., public worship with sermon. Theme, "The Inspiration and Comfort of His Presence."
6:30 p. m. vesper service in hymnology.
After the prayer service on Wednesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday school board will convene.

ST. JOHNS LUTHERAN CHURCH
9:15 Sunday school.
10:30 Morning worship. Sermon by Rev. J. M. Johnson, D. D., of Gary, Ind. Subject, "The Present Crisis, a Challenge to the Church."
No evening worship.
Wednesday evening at 7:30, quiet hour. We expect an able speaker with a message of interest to all. Attendance last Wednesday, 143. Are we able to beat it?

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
L. S. Snell, Pastor.
10:00 Bible school.
11:00 Morning worship. Theme "What We Were and What We Are."
7:30 Evening service. Subject "The Christian Race."
8:00 p. m., Wednesday, prayer service and Bible study.
Don't forget the change in the hour of service beginning the first Sunday in September. Morning worship at 10:30 and Bible school at 11:45. We invite you to worship with us.

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE TENT SERVICES
Rev. A. N. Salvie, Pastor.
All the services are held in the tent near the B. & P. station. Saturday evening prayer service at 7:30 in the tent, followed by an open air home, accused him of attacking Mrs. Cline, challenged him to a revolver duel in a vacant room upstairs and how the man turned on him and attacked him on the stairs. When Bergen was taken to the police where he died he was just able to scrawl on a sheet of paper "George Kline killed me."

Man Gives Way in Another Quarter

Women have taken to polo, soccer and other sports which have heretofore been considered for men exclusively. Man has also considered chess a game too deep for the feminine intellect, but here you see a tournament held in London for women only. Mrs. M. Stollas (left) and Mrs. R. Stevenson in the foreground.

LIQUID ASSETS
The aim of the County National's management has always been to keep its assets, in so far as possible, in liquid shape, so that every customer entitled to credit can be accommodated on request.
At the time of the latest statement, the bank had cash assets, (cash on hand or deposited with other banks and demand loans) of $1,064,623.83.
For many years the County National Bank has not found it necessary to refuse a request for a loan on account of lack of available funds.
Your account is invited on the assurance that you may obtain such loans as your financial condition and your account with the bank warrant.

The County National Bank
Of Clearfield
The Oldest Bank in Clearfield County
Invested Capital Over $1,200,000.00

LIQUID ASSETS
The aim of the County National's management has always been to keep its assets, in so far as possible, in liquid shape, so that every customer entitled to credit can be accommodated on request.
At the time of the latest statement, the bank had cash assets, (cash on hand or deposited with other banks and demand loans) of $1,064,623.83.
For many years the County National Bank has not found it necessary to refuse a request for a loan on account of lack of available funds.
Your account is invited on the assurance that you may obtain such loans as your financial condition and your account with the bank warrant.

IV. Nehemiah's Prayer (vv. 12-18).
1. His Worshipful Spirit (v. 12). He recognized God as the great and terrible One, the Lord God of heaven. True prayer shows that spirit of worship.

2. Its Ground (v. 12). It was on the ground of covenant relation that He besought God. On this ground all who are in Christ Jesus can come and plead before God.

3. It Was Persistent (v. 13). He prayed day and night. God is pleased when His servants are persistent in their pleadings with Him. Those who understand the covenant relation will be importunate in their petitions.

4. It Was Accompanied by Confession of Sin (vv. 13, 14). In this confession he mentioned definitely his sin (v. 14). We should specify the sins which we have committed. Most people when praying are too general in their confessions.

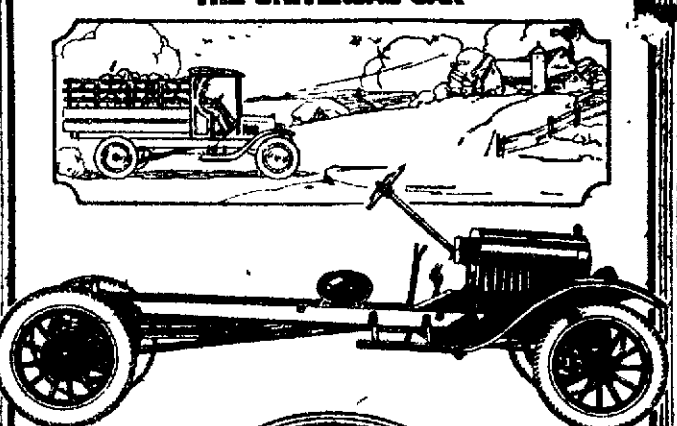

5. He Pleads God's Promises (vv. 15, 16). In our praying we should remind God of His own words. It is when His words abide in us that we can intelligently pray (John 15:17). If we would be successful in our praying we should fill our minds with God's promises.

6. He Pleads Relationship (v. 17). He reminds God that they were His children by redemption. Those who are in Christ are God's children by redemption through His precious blood. The child has a claim upon its father. God's children have a claim upon Him.

7. It Was Intercessory Prayer (v. 18). With intense earnestness he definitely prayed that God would give him favor before the king in order that he might be enabled to help his people. The king's favor was needed in order to enable him to help his brethren. God is able to move the heart of a heathen king and thus further His own cause by means of the prayer of a humble servant.

MOVIE TRAGEDY AT EDGEWATER BEING STUDIED BY POLICE
Edgewater, N. J., Aug. 26.—The story of George Cline, movie director, that he shot John Bergen, movie actor, in self defense after they had arranged to fight a duel over an alleged attack upon Mrs. Cline, was discontinued today by the police. George London, driver of the taxicab in which Bergen drove to Cline's home where he was mortally wounded, struck the hardest blow at Cline's duel story. He told detectives that after depositing Bergen at the Cline home he had not driven more than two hundred feet until he heard a shot and a woman scream. This does not tally with Cline's story that he accused Bergen of attacking Mrs. Cline and that Bergen was then given a revolver with which to fight a duel.

FARMER CONFESSES BURNING NEIGHBOR'S BARN
Franklin, Pa., Aug. 26.—Elwood Hoover, a farmer, confessed today to firing the barn of Perry Deslinger near Fryburg Wednesday night, which caused the loss of $3500, including the season's crops and four horses. Hoover declared he sought revenge on Deslinger who advised him to invest $2500 in a quab farm in Butler County which failed recently.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

$430
Economical Haulage
F.O.B. Detroit
Equipment:
Pneumatic Tires and Demountable Rims. Your choice of either the standard gearing of 8 1/2 to 1 for road delivery or the standard gearing of 7 1/2 to 1 for heavy hauling.

Do you realize that the Ford One-Ton Truck at $430 is not only the most wonderful truck value ever offered but the most economical means of solving your haulage and delivery problems, whether you are a farmer, merchant or manufacturer?

Let us give you all the facts.

CLEARFIELD CENTRAL GARAGE COMPANY
Rear Dimeling Hotel
Sales Room Murray Bldg., Cl'fd, Pa.

SEND IN YOUR RED ENVELOPE
GIVE YOUR EYES THE CHANCE THEY SHOULD HAVE
You're going along straining them every time you read and by all means, if you want to have better eyes in your declining years, have your eyes opened by a mail who knows how to relieve the strain with proper glasses.
C. C. ARNOLD

GET 'EM WHILE THEY'RE HOT
They're toasted, Folks, and they're great. They are great big Virginia peanuts to begin with and we have a way of roasting them that brings out all the goodness that's in them.
You'll like every handful that you eat and the kiddies will be crazy about them.
Special-Bags,
20c
THORN BROS.

Candies For Your Week-End Trip
You'll find plenty of candies here for your week-end eating and you'll also find that they are the regular good candies that you have become accustomed to getting here.
We have several different kinds and among them is the kind you are going to like best.
C. R. BLOOM
DRUGGIST
South Second Street
H. & C. 271-J, Bell 82-8

SCHOOL SUPPLIES
It won't be long before the ring of the school bell will break its ten-week silence and your kiddies will have to be outfitted for their start.
We have everything ready for them and there are many new things for this year's opening.
PENCILS
PEN HOLDERS
TABLETS
SCHOOL BAGS
PENCIL BOXES
ERASERS
DRINKING CUPS
BOOK STRAPS
Everything's ready for you and you should not let the first morning of school catch you unprepared.
Kurtz Stationery Store

ews of : 'Our Neighbors CURWENSVILLE

Miss Mabel Crissman and Mary McDowell of Clearfield, spent Thursday with Miss Estella Bulkley.

Miss Henrietta Maurey, of Granton, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday.

Miss Catherine Fell, of McKeesport, is visiting Miss Sarah Karstetter at her home on Filbert street.

Mrs. J. W. Edwards and son Bobby have returned to their home after visiting in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre for three weeks.

Margaret and Florence McKinley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McKinley are improving nicely after having their tonsils removed Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Patton of West Grove, Pa., motored to Curwensville yesterday and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Swoope and son Hewitt of Merion, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Swoope.

Mrs. H. H. Hopwood and Mrs. A. F. Maurey were shopping in Clearfield yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. LaBoarde and daughter have moved into a house on George street recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKenzie and children.

Misses Genevieve Maurey and Elizabeth Wall spent Friday afternoon in Clearfield.

Misses Bessie Clark, Helen Clark, Lucinda Clark and Mary Shinn and Messrs. Murray Clark and Charles Murray left yesterday for Bariesboro where they will camp for some time.

Mrs. James Thompson is spending a few days in DuBois with her mother Mrs. Patchell.

Misses Sarah Karstetter spent this afternoon in DuBois.

Miss Frances Schorr will leave on Monday for Braddock, Pa., where she will teach school through the coming year.

Mrs. Gordon Bloom, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Twigg on Irvin Hill.

WOODLAND

Miss Mame Lansberry of DuBois, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Verda Duffey, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting this week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Owen Duffey.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY AUGUST 28TH and 29TH LIBERTY THEATRE Madera, Pa.

The Home of High Class Photoplays
Jesse L. Lasky
presents

Cecil B. DeMille's
Greatest Production
"THE AFFAIRS OF ANATOLE"

With the most imposing cast ever assembled in one photoplay—

Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elvira D'Amico, Bobe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye Price.

Adults 35c, 50c Children 10c, 15c

SULPHUR VAPOR BATHS

For all kinds of Rheumatism, Kidney and Skin disorders, Colds, nervousness. Why spend time, money in going from home to hot springs when you have the remedy right here and get the results. Try a bath for that "tired feeling." You will be delighted with the results.

Mr. & Mrs. E. R. Wooster
148 W. Market Street
Phone H & C. 359-m
Clearfield, Pa.,

Mrs. J. C. Gingery is spending a week at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Miss Agnes Pike has returned from Lock Haven Normal where she has been attending the summer term.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Graffius, of Fairmont, West Va., and Miss Rose Baney, of Lock Haven, visited relatives here this week.

Edward Wisor, who has been a patient in the Clearfield Hospital returned to his home here on Thursday.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mrs. Chas. Johnson on Wednesday evening at the home of her mother Mrs. Robt Mitchell. About twenty-five ladies were present. Delicious refreshments were served and all had a delightful time. Mrs. Johnson received many pretty and useful gifts.

A number of our people attended the dollar day sale at Clearfield on Friday.

Mrs. O. Perry Simler and sons David and Richard, of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Glickler, of Punxsutawney; Mrs. Jos Dugan and two children and sister Dorothy Williams of Osceola, were guests on Friday at the home of J. M. Baker.

Mrs. H. B. Varner and Miss Lucy Stoner's classes of girls of the M. E. S. S. picked at Camp Golden Rod on Thursday.

Mrs. Hoffman, of Pittsburgh, visited this week at the home of Mrs. Robt. Mitchell.

Change Wrought by Time.
"You see, grandma, we perforate an aperture in the apex and a corresponding aperture in the base, and, by applying the egg to the lips and forcibly inhaling the breath, the shell is entirely emptied of its contents." "Dear me," exclaimed the old lady, "what wonderful improvements they do make! Now, in my younger days, they just made a hole in each end and sucked."

Two Things Life Taught Him.
The longest I live the more I am satisfied of two things: First, that the truest lives are those that are cut rose-diamond fashion, with many facets answering to the many-planned aspects of the world about them; secondly, that society is always trying in some way or other to grind us down to a single facet.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Courtesy, Above All.
We must be as courteous to a man as to a picture, which we are willing to give the benefit of a good night.—Emerson.

Old Sores, Piles, Burns and Scalds Heal Very Quickly

Your local druggist sells an ointment called San Cura that surely does do anything it is advertised to do or money back.

Thos. F. McCauley, Cooperstown, Pa., cut his finger; blood poison set in; arm swelled terribly; friends despaired; said arm must come off. San Cura Ointment drew out water and dark pus; agony ceased; arm and hand soon as good as ever.

It quickly draws out poison from sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, cuts, burns, scalds and bruises.

For itching, bleeding or protruding piles, it has received the highest endorsements, while innumerable cases are recorded where eczema, tetter and salt rheum were cured in the shortest possible time. San Cura Ointment, 35c, 65c and $1.25 at all Drug Store

HAVE YOUR WATCH FIXED HERE

There's no question about our ability to fix it and fix it so that it will run as you would like to have it run—RIGHT. We have been doing this thing in Clearfield for a long time now and we have earned some pretty compliments from our clients for the repair jobs we have done.

Whatever is wrong with your watch, we will fix it right and you'll be proud to have some one ask you for the time, as you can swear by it.

W. W. O'Brien

CABINET SETTLES

Continued from Page One

ed to the Senate early in the afternoon. Washington, Aug. 25.—The Administration will seek legislation from Congress authorizing the taking over of certain railroads and anthracite mines if there is not a radical improvement in the industrial situation within a few days, it was indicated tonight after Senator Cummins, chairman of the Senate interstate commerce committee, and Attorney General Daugherty had conferred with President Harding for more than an hour.

Railroads will be given an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to furnish adequate service, it was declared, but those which cannot give proper service will be taken over by the Government under present plan.

If production of anthracite is not resumed "within a few days," it was added, a bill will be introduced in Congress to authorize the Government to take over the mines and produce coal.

Legislation to enable such seizures, Senator Cummins predicted, would be rushed through Congress quickly.

Proof Up to Roads.
The conference at the White House was held after President Harding had discussed the entire industrial situation with his cabinet at its regular meeting today, and after the New York rail conference had been terminated without result.

Immediately after the cabinet meeting, and before tonight's conference, however, it was stated by an administration spokesman that "no new steps were under consideration," and that the President had nothing definite to announce.

It was indicated in this connection that the President was resolved to see that adequate transportation was furnished and was firm in his determination to stand by his pronouncement to Congress last week that he was "resolved to use all the power of the Government to maintain transportation and sustain the right of men to work."

Reports have been received of sabotage on certain roads, particularly the Chesapeake & Ohio. There was no indication, however, that the Federal Government proposed taking immediate action to stop destruction of rail property.

RAIL FIGHT TO FINISH

New York, Aug. 25.—The rail

strike today developed into a fight to the finish when peace negotiations were blown sky high.

Heads of the big five railroad brotherhoods, acting as mediators between executives and striking shopmen in a final effort to effect separate settlements with individual roads after the Association of Railway Executives as a whole had rejected the running trades' first peace overtures, reported to the representatives of 77 roads at the Yale Club this morning that the shop crafts had turned down a proposition made to them yesterday by the carriers.

Negotiations then were broken off sharp and executives, strike leaders and brotherhood chiefs packed up their bags and began leaving town, prepared for a test of endurance.

Before he departed for his headquarters in Chicago, Bert M. Jewell, official spokesman for the strikers, asserted that he believed the executive who had lingered for the parley on individual settlements soon would be able "to bring home to their hard-shelled colleagues the railroad situation in its grim reality."

"We shall be content to let the condition of equipment prove that roads cannot operate with unskilled strike breakers," declared Mr. Jewell, adding later that "we can and will fight for our terms and for a nation-wide settlement."

condition of equipment prove that roads cannot operate with unskilled strike breakers," declared Mr. Jewell, adding later that "we can and will fight for our terms and for a nation-wide settlement."

ARRANGE TO ENJOY YOUR SUNDAY DINNER TO THE
STRAINS OF THAYER'S
ORCHESTRA. DINNER WILL START AT ONE O'CLOCK.

JORDAN'S

GLEN RICHEY DEFEATS CURWENSVILLE

Glen Richey defeated Curwensville in a hard fought ten inning game at the Sunday School Picnic and Field meet Thursday by a 7-6 score.

The line up

	Ab	R	H	O	A	E
Glen Richey	5	2	3	1	1	0
Bachelor of	5	1	2	0	2	0
E. Winslow ss	4	6	3	0	0	0
Wolling lf	5	1	1	3	1	1
D. Rowles 3b	5	0	1	14	3	0
Daisley c	5	1	2	11	2	1
Morgan 1b	5	0	1	0	0	0
Gill rf	4	1	0	1	6	1
W. Winslow 2b	1	0	0	0	1	0
Johnson p	3	1	1	0	0	0

	Ab	R	H	O	A	E
Curwensville	47	7	14	20	16	3
Morris 2b	5	0	0	2	2	0
Lantz lf	5	1	1	5	0	0
S. Robinson ss	5	3	3	6	4	0
C. Collins 3b	5	1	2	3	1	0
Wolf, 1b	5	0	2	7	1	1
Huns rf	4	0	0	0	0	0
Kantar of	4	0	0	2	0	0
Brunetti c	5	0	1	7	3	0
Erhard p	5	1	3	0	2	0

Two base hits: Rowles, Bachelor, Winslow, E. Lantz, Collins, Erhard. Three base hits: Bachelor, Stiles, bases, Collins, Robinson, Wolling, 2. Double plays: Bachelor to W. Winslow. Strike outs: Johnson 2, Page 12, Erhard 5.

Optimistic Thought.

A grateful mind is not only the greatest of virtues but the parent of all other virtues.

BUILD UP THE KIDDIES FOR SCHOOL

It's only about two weeks before your kiddies will start the grind of the coming school year and you owe it to them to have them in the best physical shape they can possibly be in.

They will be able to do far better work if you build up their little bodies for them so that they start in with the added advantage of having reserve strength in plenty for their work.

Milk is the best food that you can use to build them up and our milk is the best that you can in this section on account of the minute care we give it from the time it comes to us until it reaches your table.

Clearfield Dairy Co.

TRY A WHITMAN SAMPLER FOR THE WEEK-END

If you've ever tried a WHITMAN SAMPLER for the week-end you know what goodness is contained in every piece of candy in the box. And then there's so many varieties that several of them are going to touch your candy-taste in good form.

Yours is waiting for you.

Stewart's Drug Store
Latter Store

SHIPPED HIS RACERS TO PUNXSUTAWNEY

Ex-Sheriff James Mahaffey, shipped two of his crack race horses to Punxsutawney today where they are entered in the races at the fair which starts next Tuesday.

The horses are "Dillon J." and "The Union," both of which are very capable performers. The stable is in charge of the veteran reinsman John Payne, and John promises they'll be heard from in the front rank next week.

Timely Advice.
"Take keer, mah friends," said the preacher solemnly; "take keer dat when de time comes to shuffle off dis ortal mortal coil, you dean git los' in de shuffle." — Luck

The New BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN

A
30x3 1/2
Tire for $10.90

Here, at last, is a small car Brunswick tire that is all Brunswick in quality, in materials, workmanship and wearing ability. A tire that is making new records of long life, mileage and good service.

The BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN conforms to the high BRUNSWICK standard of manufacturing which has made this house famous for its quality products for three-quarters of a century.

Try a BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN on your car. You will gain a new conception of what real tire service means.

DEALERS IN CLEARFIELD
Routch & Swartzle,
Market Street Auto Sales Co.
Williams Auto Sales Co.
Clearfield Auto Supply Co.

Real Brunswick Quality Through and Through

Manufactured by
THE BRUNSWICK-BALKE-
COLLENDER CO.

Big Sale On SUMMER CANDY at the
WEST SIDE TOB.
AND CANDY STORE
14 Nichols St.

Gossip For Tonight's Tea Table

A large number of Clearfield people attended the Grampian picnic today.

J. E. Miller, who is running a saw mill at Medix Run, Elk county, is going to spend Sunday with his family on Cherry street.

Miss Esther Ogden, who has been making her home with her uncle S. A. Smeal of Pleasant Grove, left today for Ridgeway to enter the Hospital.

The H-I-Nu Club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halford on Third street last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beish, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting relatives in this section at present.

Misses Catherine Dixon and Agnes Cretzer have returned after spending the week-end with friends in Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Palmer and son of Hawatha, Kansas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lafferty, at their home on Clearfield street at present.

Mr. Palmer was a former resident of Clearfield, but has been for the past fifteen or twenty years, farming on a large scale in Kansas.

Indoor Occupation.
"You must take an interest in outdoor sports," said the physician. "I do," replied the indolent citizen. "They provide my main reading every day."

Marvelous Scales.
The weighing machine used in the laboratory of the bureau of standards in Washington is said to be the most accurate in the world. It will weigh the wing of a fly.

DEMON DISEASE IS DOWN FOR COUNT IN CLEARFIELD

Secretary Gauvin, of the local Board of Health has old Demon Disease down for the count of nine and hopes to be able to maintain his "lead pipe cinch" hold upon the old fellow for the coming week. During the week just closed not a single case of contagious disease was reported to the Board of Health, while one scarlet fever case was released from quarantine during that time.

There are at present a total of eleven cases of contagion under quarantine in the town, ten of which are for whooping cough.

They are located as follows:
First Ward—Whooping cough, 7.
Second Ward—Whooping cough, 3;
Scarlet fever, 1.

Once more does the Third and Fourth Wards come through with clean bills of health, not a single case of communicable disease being reported from either of these Wards.

—Try Our Business Printing Dept.—

OLD TIMERS GET TOGETHER AGAIN

The O. of M. Club, an old-time local camping association, who used to camp at Gillerico, Golden Rod, Spruce Creek and other favored spots in this section, are enjoying the pleasures of a week-end at Goshen camp, while reminiscing over old times and old members, many of whom have folded their earthly tents and entered the celestial camping grounds.

The O. of M. Club in the heyday of its youth was composed of about a score of well-known local young men and of this number the following answered the call to renew their youth and talk over old times around the camp fire:—Fred B. Leavy, Fred B. Lee, Dr. R. W. Livingston, Pearl T. Davis, Frank Smoke, Boyd Smith, Charles LaBarre, of Clearfield, and Geo. L. McCullough, of Tyrone.

Of the remaining members yet in the land of the living, but unable to attend, letters of regret at the inability to be present were received from the following:—Frank Wagner Newberry, Pa.; V. N. Herpster, Mt. Union, Pa.; E. L. Kennard, Rochester, N. Y.; Fred Sheeder, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ben Sheeder, Pottstown, Pa.; Theodore Shoemaker, Vermont.

Get Wise!

Treat Your Automobile Like
You Want To Be Used --

Use Emery Gasoline

You will use more air, get more mileage and have no starting trouble, due to quality of our gas.

Your car is a big part of your family pleasure. Would you feed your family skimmed milk? Why not give your car and truck good oils?

Emery Oils have stood the test for years. The heavy colored oils mean plenty of carbon and you pay for extra cleaning and needless depreciation.

USE CLEAR EMERY PENNSYLVANIA OILS

For Sale by —

WILLIAMS AUTO SALES CO.
ASHLEY SHAW
MARKET ST. AUTO SALES CORP.
CLEARFIELD AUTO SUPPLY CO.
ROUTCH & SWARTZLE
Look for "E M Co." signs.

Superior Oil & Supply Co.

Gasoline, Oils and Greases of all Kinds.
Mine and Mill Supplies

ALL OUT! LET'S GO!

Special Legion Meeting to Arrange Final
Details of Williamsport Trip

MONDAY,—8 P. M.

Williamsport Convention Committee Meets

MONDAY,—7:30 P. M.

Every Member at the Meeting.

Reports indicate big crowd going on
Special Friday morning, September 8th.

Come and get the latest dope on the Bonus.

ALL REMAINING SUMMER MERCHANDISE

---at---

Greatly Reduced
Prices

A. W. LEONARDSON CO.

A SPECIAL LOT

—of—

PLUNGERS

SELLING FOR 60c EACH.

These plungers are of the best quality red rubber and are complete with handle at this price.

Get one for your home. Only a limited number for sale.

WHY SOME STRIKE

Eight-hour day, National Agreement, Shop Rules, Recognition of the Union, Sympathy are only ripples on the surface. Greco says declare that a man cannot support his family at the going wage. Deep down, the unseen cause is the wage system itself, fundamentally wrong. B. M. Jewell, spokesman for the striking shopcrafts, declared that to support his family properly, a man must earn over $2,000 per year. My family of seven costs more. In 12 years of single machond my wages averaged $80 per year and board; yet I saved up $1,700, the foundation for my present fortune. The claim has been made that even at the 1921 wage, bituminous miners did not average $600 per year. On the other hand, increased wages, increased prices of product and increased cost of living leaves us no better off. Any one except a fool should know that wages enough for one will not support seven. Such folly is the wage system based on equal pay for equal work.

When a father of five wants to be honest and can't pay his bills, or cannot afford the doctor for his sick wife, he is ready to strike from sheer desperation. And his unmarried comrade who in one day at the same wage earns enough to keep him four, can afford to lay off and help the strike along. God bless the young men and women who undertake matrimony! The women who become mothers are the noblest of God's creation. Shall we continue to punish them with grinding toil, poverty, privation and distress, or is not the pain of childbirth and the anxious care over health and morals enough for their share? If the supply of children stops, the nation perishes, and America becomes a wilderness.

I, the watchman, have sounded an alarm.

If you send me to Congress, I'll do all I can to influence the other congressmen toward remedying this evil; and as a congressman, I can reach the public much better. Give me a boost! Send self-addressed envelope for my leaflet about "The Laborer's Plight."

ELISHA K. KANE,
Kushequa, Pa.
Political Advt.

10 South Third Street
Both Phones.

TAKE PICTURES

OVER THE WEEK END

Wherever you are going to spend your week end, you'll want a pictorial record of the trip and we have the things that will make your trip much pleasanter.

We have the cameras in the popular sizes and of course have plenty of film for them.

We'll show you how to make pictures you'll be proud of.

Aughinbaugh's

ROOFING

Now is the time to replace or repair leaky roofs. Don't wait until cold weather. We have a JOHNS-MANVILLE Roofing Material for every need. Let us show you the economy of these permanent fire-resisting roof coverings.

CLEARFIELD
MACHINE SHOPS
Warehouse Department

Flabby skins become firm and youthful with
Marinello Rest Facial—75c
MARY S. DAVIES
No. 9 South Second Street
H. & C. 223-L

STRANGERS, VISITORS & COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS
Spending Sunday in Clearfield,
Are SPECIALLY invited to WORSHIP in
Trinity Methodist Church, Second and Walnut Streets.

IF YOU DON'T GET
YOUR PROGRESS
LET US KNOW

CLEARFIELD PROGRESS

THE WEATHER

Fair and cooler tonight. Fair and warmer Sunday.

VOLUME XVI

THE CLEARFIELD PROGRESS, CLEARFIELD, PA., SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 26, 1922.

NUMBER 200

CABINET SETTLES ON A PLAN TO TAKE OVER RAILWAYS

But This Step Will Be
Taken Only In Case of Breakdown In Ability
To Transport Freight.

DEVELOPMENTS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—The anthracite mine strike must be settled or the Government will take steps to seize and operate the pits Monday. This is the President's ultimatum, Senator Watson declared today after a long conference with Mr. Harding at the White House.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—Plans for Federal operation of the anthracite mines and the railroads that fail to function have been completed by President Harding and his advisors, it was made known today, as the anthracite and railroad strikes appear absolutely deadlocked. A final effort will be made to bring about peace in the hard coal fields. If this fails a measure will be introduced next week calling for Federal operation of the mines. Seizure of the railroads is not contemplated until the managements have been given an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to maintain service. If the lines show signs of breaking down then Federal control will be resorted to.

It is not the intention of the Government to make a nation-wide seizure of the roads at one time although the bills giving the President the power to take over the lines may vest him with blanket authority to operate the entire systems at one time, Senator Cummins made it known. Cummins bill creating a Federal distribution agency and giving additional powers to the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue orders for embargoes and other suitable measures for the equitable distribution of coal during the present emergency was before the Interstate Commerce Commission for action. It was believed the bill would be reported.

Dublin Mourns Death Of Collins By Protection Of Rapid Machine Guns

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 26.—Dublin today is a city of mourning and machine guns. Snouts of rapid fire rifles pointed out from behind sombre ribbons of crepe which were draped about the buildings out of respect for Michael Collins, slain leader of the Free State. The Free State while outwardly turning its attention to honoring Collins and making ready for his funeral is rushing preparations to resist any attempts to seize this opportunity to attempt the capture of the city and the establishment of a republic. Reports still persist that DeValera is in County Louth planning an attack on Dublin over the week-end. A day of mourning is planned throughout Free State territory, all work and commerce except that which is essential will be suspended for the day in Dublin.

MAN, BURNED LITTLE GIRL'S HAND TO BONE SENTENCED TO YEAR

Bayonne, N. J., Aug. 26.—Found guilty of holding the hand of his 6-year-old daughter Dorothy over a stove, burning it to the bone, William H. Moore, a blacksmith, was sentenced to one year in the county penitentiary.

"The only fit punishment for you would be the same as you gave the child—to hold you over a fire," said Recorder William J. Cain in imposing sentence.

Recorder Cain took the little girl on his knee and asked her who burned her hand.

"Daddy burned it," she said, "while he was drunk."

Ex-Postmaster Con Allen, of DuBois, was a Clearfield visitor today.

Police Rescue Drugged High School Girl From Pittsburgh Hotel Room

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26.—Led by her father, police today rescued Miss Elizabeth Rea, a pretty high school girl, from a room in a North Side hotel where she alleged she had been taken after being drugged. Police arrested William J. Means in connection with the abduction. The prisoner, who is recovering from shell shock, was accused by the girl with drugging and kidnapping her. Means is said to be married. The girl stated that the last she remembered was when Means induced her to drink an ice cream soda.

Additional Warrants Are Issued For Communists Who Attended Big Meet

St. Joseph, Mich., Aug. 26.—Twenty-three additional warrants, calling for a total of forty Communists, including five women, were issued today in connection with the Communist convention held Tuesday by Federal officials at Brigeau, Mich. Twelve of the alleged Communists sought refuge in New York, Cleveland and other cities, but would be taken into custody today, it was announced by Federal authorities.

REAL "OLD FASHIONED" RUNAWAY TEAM CAUSES EXCITEMENT ON MAIN STREETS

"Hairbreadth Harry" Hershey
Dashes Through Crowd,
Grips Harness And Brings
Rushing Team to Dead Stop.

NO DAMAGE IS REPORTED

Considerable excitement was occasioned on Second and Market streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock by a sight which is rarely witnessed in these days of "horseless carriages." Fred Leavy's farmer was hauling hay to his barn just off Leavy avenue. After unloading the driver climbed up over the hay rigging onto the wagon and the horses startled by the noise he made behind them started down street. The driver was able to get hold of but one of the lines and in attempting to stop them with the one line added to their fright sufficiently to have them let out a few notches in their speed and they dashed out onto Second street at a pretty lively gallop.

Bud Goldy traveling up Second street with a truck load of dirt gave the runaways a clear right of way.

CLARION MAN, THOT DEAD, COMES HOME AFTER TWO YEARS

Wife Collected $8,000
Insurance Believing Him Killed In An Explosion In The West.

MIND HAD FAILED

Clarion, Pa., Aug. 26.—A. W. Weed today told how he had wandered about the country for nearly two years, his mind a blank, following an explosion of a magazine of the Osage Torpedo Company, at Taluska, Okla., where he was employed. Weed, whose wife collected $8,000 insurance in the belief that he was blown to atoms related his experiences from the time he found himself lying beside a small stream following the explosion until he was arrested and lodged in jail here for driving an automobile without a license. He said part of the time he had been in Sandusky, Ohio, where he worked on the wharves and that he was afraid to return home in the belief he would be charged with the destruction of the magazine.

NEW SENATOR DON'T BELIEVE IN PASSING BUCK ON BONUS

Major Reed, Appointee to Crow's Post, Springs
A Surprise In Senate
By Opposition Speech.

PRECEDENT BROKE

Washington, Aug. 25.—Major David A. Reed of Pittsburgh, junior senator from Pennsylvania and one of the two world war veterans in the upper House of Congress, exploded a bombshell among his colleagues today with a speech opposing the soldier bonus.

It was his first plunge into Senatorial debate. His move was unexpected, and his position on the bonus, although generally assumed to be negative, was not definitely known until he arose in the midst of the Senate's discussion of the McCumber bonus bill.

"I am not willing, in army slang, to pass the buck to the President," Senator Reed declared. "Therefore I shall vote against this bill now."

This expression came at the conclusion of a five-minute address from his seat in the "Cherokee strip" on the Democratic side of the aisle.

Storm Center in Fight.

Colleagues came over afterward to extend congratulations. Among them was Senator Sheppard of Texas, a Democrat, a supporter of the McCumber measure, and sponsor of the Eighteenth amendment to the Constitution—the Prohibition amendment.

Senator Reed had been a storm center in the bonus fight for several days. He was under tremendous pressure from both sides to "line up." Opponents of the bonus, hoping he would oppose it, urged him to get into the debate. He was told the view of an ex-service man in the Senate would carry weight. Letters and telegrams opposing the passage of bonus legislation also had reached him, as well as communications from American Legion posts favoring it.

A conviction that the bill should be defeated, coupled with reiterated requests from senatorial associates that he come out against it publicly, induced him to "break the ice" with a bonus speech.

Favorable Impression.

His entry into senatorial debate was dramatic, rivaling that of Senator Pepper in connection with the Newberry case. Like Senator Pepper, (Continued on Page 3).

Fine Program Is Arranged For The Band Concert At Park Tomorrow P. M.

IN THE CLEARFIELD DRIVING PARK
SUNDAY AFTERNOON 3 P. M.
AUGUST 27TH
CLEARFIELD AMERICAN LEGION BAND
Under Direction Prof. H. Clark Thayer

March, "Belle of Clearfield"
Overture, "Stradella"
Pastoral "Night in June"
Scenes from "Robin Hood"
Tenor Solo "For You"

Mr. H. J. Brown
Selection of Popular Songs
Heard in Parlor and on Streets
Waltz Suite "Murmuring Waters"
Star Spangled Banner

Thayer
Flotow
King
DeKoven
Webster
Brockton
Hall

COX SAYS AMERICA MUST ACT TO SAVE NATIONS OF EUROPE

London, England, Aug. 26.—America must act to save the nations of Europe from complete disruption, James M. Cox, former Democratic candidate for President of the United States, stated here today. He recommended that Herbert Hoover should be designated by the United States to represent this country on the reparations commission, as he holds the confidence of Europe. Cox conveys a message from Chancellor Wirth, of Germany, to this country.

FORD PLANTS OUT; WILL SHUT DOWN 'TIL SEPTEMBER 16

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 26.—Henry Ford will announce tonight that the Ford Motor Company's plants will be closed down until September 16th, it was stated at the office of the Ford Motor Company today. The official announcement will be made at the Dearborn plant. Coal shortage forced the shut down, the announcement will read. Six thousand men already have been laid off at the various Ford plants and sixty-nine thousand more will be affected by the order.

DOLLAR DAY GROWS IN POPULARITY IN CLEARFIELD—EVENT A HUGE SUCCESS

Stores Thronged All Day With Shoppers Coming In From All Parts Of The County
By Rail And Auto.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS

Yesterday's Dollar Day was the most successful single merchandising occasion in the recent history of Clearfield's mercantile world. The weather man attempted to interfere with the program by sending a light, misty rain in the early morning hours, but that failed even to discourage the early bargain hunters, with the result that when opening time arrived Friday morning, the streets of the business district had the appearance of show day with the crowds out watching for the parade.

The early shoppers went to it with a rush and soon package and parcel-laden women and children were darting about from store to store, while streams of shoppers with arms full of bundles were seen returning to their homes in every section of the town.

The early shoppers were not confined to local people either, because long lines of automobiles parked along the streets showed that hundreds of out-of-town shoppers were on hand to profit by the bargains on display at their favorite stores. The rain did interfere for a time with this out-of-town trade, but clearing skies before the noon hour served to bring out the country and small town shoppers in numbers which increased every hour of the day. As a result the influx of shoppers kept up in ever-increasing numbers from the opening until tired clerks succeeded in getting their stores closed at 6 o'clock.

Everybody was pleased, the bargain range and quality was above the average of these occasions and many thousands of dollars were left with our merchants, and will result in increasing the scope and magnitude of the next arrival of this big semi-annual bargain event in Clearfield.

FIRST FIELD DAY OF S. S. WORKERS IS A NOVEL EVENT

Nearly Three Thousand People Gather at Irvin
Park at Curwensville
To Gain Inspiration

AN ANNUAL EVENT

As there has not appeared any writeup in the Progress of the big annual Sunday School Field Day which was held at the new Irvin Park on Thursday, the 24th, the writer has been commissioned by the editor to give a short synopsis of the gathering and the program which was carried out to the very letter.

Thursday morning dawned with every appearance of the day being unfavorable for a day at the park, but about 10 o'clock the dark bank of clouds which had been hovering in the west broke, and the sun came forth shedding its warmth on Mother Earth and drying up the ground from the small rainfall of earlier in the day. The gloomy aspect of the morning had a tendency of keeping many folks from coming to Curwensville who had made all arrangements to do so, yet at noon the crowd numbered almost three thousand.

The program started off on time, as follows: From 9:30 to 10:30 was the assembly; 10:30 to 11:00, music by the Boys' Marine Band. At the former hour mentioned, the committee on children's entertainment commenced their activities and continued until noon, giving the kiddies several hours of honest-to-goodness, enjoyment, and it did the older people good to see them at their sport.

At precisely 11:00 o'clock, another period of the program was taken up, which was of interest to the older folks. At this time Mr. John Haines, chairman of the executive committee, arose and after a few well chosen remarks, introduced John A. Dalg, president of District No. 2, who delivered the address of welcome to the visitors in his usual masterly and (Continued on Page 3).

Thirty-Four Potato Growers Of Janesville Haled Before Court

The State Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg has been making strenuous efforts the past several years to stamp out and eradicate the European wart disease of the potato from Pennsylvania, and on April 18, 1919, a law was passed, which provided the penalty of a fine of five dollars for every case of a person planting seed potatoes which were not known to be immune from this disease, which is raising such havoc with the potato crop wherever allowed to get a foothold.

The Osceola and Janesville or Gulich township sections have been prolific plague spots of this disease in Clearfield county in the past and a number of potato growers in those sections have been prosecuted and fined for their dereliction in this regard in the past couple of years. By reason of this lapse the State inspectors have been keeping pretty close tabs on the potato planters thereabouts.

As a result of this espionage and what he learned, Herbert L. Roberts, of Ebensburg, a State Inspector connected with the Department of Agriculture, appeared before Squire Joseph John on Thursday last and made information against no less than 34 Janesville or Gulich township potato growers, charging violation of the "potato wart" law.

Yesterday Constable Thomas B. Reilly went to Janesville and arrested twenty-seven of the culprits and summoned them to appear before Squire John on Wednesday next to answer the charge.

The potato growers waxed highly indignant when placed under arrest and blamed their downfall upon Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, "Empress" of all of Gulich township, from whom they purchased the potatoes. "What the Empress" says goes up in this neck of woods," one of the victims replied, (Continued on Page 3).

Twenty Five Years To Bring About Absolute Prohibition

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY

NEW YORK, August 26.—How long do prohibition leaders think it will take to make America dry?

"Twenty-five years," says William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Anderson, though a state leader, is the most militant prohibitionist in the country and he admits he has the hardest job in the wettest state in what he calls "liquor's black belt"—New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

In an interview with NEA Service he made these predictions:

"Within five or six years we will have broken the political backbone of booze and checked all serious efforts to change the dry law."

"Within another five or six years the bootleggers will be so generally in jail or in terror that the Volstead act will not be broken any more than other laws are."

"After that it will take 15 years for complete education of the people, especially those of foreign birth or extraction respecting the nature and effect of alcohol to the point where prohibition will no longer be either an issue or a problem."

Anderson thinks prohibition really will be here in 1947. Perhaps earlier—but 1947 is his conservative estimate.

"Magazine straw votes don't bother us," he said. "Nor does the growing agitation for beer and light wine. There isn't one chance in 100 of the Volstead act being changed."

Qualifying, he added: "But if it is changed—mark you, it will only be temporary."

Consumption of alcohol has dropped to 10 or 20 per cent compared with pre-prohibition days, Anderson estimates. The number of drinkers, he thinks, has decreased almost as much.

WILLIAM H.
ANDERSON
Intelligent And Broad
Visioned "Dry" Worker
Gives Reasons For
His Predictions.

"I haven't any illusions about Congressmen and legislators," he said. "I know lots of those who vote dry are wet personally. They're honest of they vote according to the sentiment of their constituents."

"Politicians and the public generally will eventually get it through their heads that anarchy is the only alternative to enforcement and observance."

The Anti-Saloon League will be necessary, Anderson says, through most of—and perhaps all—of the 25 years necessary to make prohibition prohibitive.

"It will cost more, too," he said, "because we now have two jobs where we formerly had one. These are: first, to hold the law by electing dry Congressmen and state legislators; and second, to enforce the law by organizing the public to get behind the regularly constituted local enforcement authorities—back up good officials, jack up the others."

"We are pushing a three-fold plan; First, community enrollment for enforcement through the newly formed 'Allied Citizens of America, Inc.' forcing everyone to take a definite stand either for or against law and order; second, enacting an enforcement ordinance in every community; third, applying the 'Yonkers Plan' where enforcement is lax, by co-operating with officials if they will enforce the law, or focusing publicity upon them if they won't."

Anderson says New York state already has 250,000 members of the Allied Citizens of America, and the enrollment campaign is just beginning.

"When the light is turned on all decent people will come in," he said. "There are prominent bankers, lawyers, manufacturers, and even a few preachers, who by opposing prohibition have placed themselves in the same category with troway whiskered anarchists. When they see that through ignorance or prejudice they have lined up with the criminals they will come in out of the wet."

CLASSIFIED ADS FOR EVERYBODY

One Cent Per Word For Each Insertion Minimum Charge Twenty-Five Cents

WANTED

WANTED—100 miners for our mines near Windber, Pa. Steady work good working conditions, good wages. 42 inches of coal. Empty houses for families. American and foreign boarding houses for single men. Write Ines Coal Co., Windber, Pa., Somerset, Co. 8/15-tf-ch

WANTED—Lady to keep house for gentleman. Call at 116 N. Third street after 6 p. m. 8/22-6t-ch

WANTED—Twenty-five coal miners to load machine cutcoal at Nichols, Pa., on the B. & P. R. R. $1.10 per ton. Best of conditions. J. O. Taylor, Nichols, Armstrong county, Pa. 8/23-3t-pd

WANTED—Saw mill men, woodsmen and teamsters. See J. Ed Miller, Cherry street, before noon tomorrow. 8/26-1t-pd

WANTED—Kitchen girls at the Dimeling Hotel at once. Apply Dimeling Hotel. 8/26-tf-ch

WANTED—A number of laborers. Apply at new plant, Clearfield Machine Shops. 8/26-2t-pd

WANTED—To rent six or seven-room house, with all conveniences. Inquire Estep Motor Co., East End. 8/26-3t-pd

WANTED—Men for State road work. Good wages. Apply Johnson & Kearns office, Woodland. 8/21-6t-ch

WANTED—Girls at the Clearfield Laundry. 8/24-6t-ch

WANTED—Agents, Sell the original Watkins Products. Good city territory still open. Get our wonderful offer and free samples. The J. R. Watkins Co., Dept. 79, New York, N. Y. 8/5 12 19 26 pd

WANTED—A young lady who has had stenographic experience. Permanent position for competent party. Application to be made by letter only. Address Stenographer, c/o Progress. 8/24-3t-ch

FOR SALE

Fifty-acre farm, two and one-half miles from Clearfield. Twenty-five acres first and second growth timber. House contains kitchen, pantry, living room, dining room, four bedrooms, three clothes presses. Lawn, well water. Bank barn 25x48 feet. Hen house 10x12 ft. Hog house 16 x 16 ft. 28 apple trees. 14 cherry trees. 14 peach trees, 10 plum trees, 4 pear trees, 6 grape arbors. For full particulars call or see C. G. BLOOM, Real Estate and Insurance, 215 West Fifth Ave. Bell 141-M 8/21-tf-ch

FOR SALE—Rugs in good condition, one new and one used. Also some furniture. Inquire of Progress or phone H. & C. 323-J-3. 8/25-10t-ch

FOR SALE—Second hand bicycle in good condition. Inquire Guelich Barber Shop, Third street. 8/26-2t-ch

FOR SALE—Farm of 27 acres near Litz Bridge; 2 houses and outbuildings; 15 acres young growing timber. Call Clearfield Progress for particulars. 8/22-24-26-28-pd

FOR SALE—Four high grade young cows, five young cattle, and one 1917 Ford truck in good condition. Matthew Durkee, Pottersdale, Pa. 8/25-4t-ch

FOR SALE—Fine saddle horse. Inquire John Ward Co. Contractors, Grampian, Pa. 8/23-5t-pd

FOR SALE

The imported Guernsey cow, Imp. Le Mains Select III, born May 1, 1919, her yearling daughter sired by Pencoyd Champion, and her 3-week-old calf whose sire is from an advanced register cow whose record is 500 pounds butterfat. It is desired to sell the three animals together as they are excellent material for foundation purposes. This stock may be seen by appointment in DuBois. DR. S. M. DAVENPORT, 131 E. DuBois Ave., DuBois, Pa. 8/16-23t-ch

FOR SALE—One team of mares. 1 Black; 1 bay. Weigh between 1100 and 1200, age 5 and 6 years. Will sell as a team or singly. They are sound and in good shape. The price is right for a quick buyer. W. F. Powell. 8/21-6t-ch

We Will Have Week-End Specials

Even though Dollar Day depleted our stocks to some extent, we had made adequate preparations for it and will be ready for you with our regular week-end specials.

You will find as good an array of candies awaiting you for your Sunday sweets as usual.

VIRGINIA CHOCOLATE SHOP

FOR SALE—My residence on Irvin Hill, consisting of 6 room house and pantry. Equipped with electric lights, bath room and hot air furnace. Three lots in plot. Large chicken house. Fruit trees, cement walks. Price $3,000. Harry G. Gates, Clearfield, Pa. 8/24-25-26-28-30 9/2

FOR SALE—Sweet corn and tomatoes for canning, also canning beets. Call W. A. Collins, H. & C. 266-W-3. 8/24-6t-ch

FOR SALE—5 - passenger Dodge. Will sell reasonably or will take a horse in exchange. Inquire Irvin Tubbs, Taylor Bros. & Koozer's Saw Mill, Lick Run. 8/24-3t-pd

FOR SALE—Ford roadster, 1920 model, electrically equipped, in good running condition. A bargain to quick buyer. Inquire by letter "R," care of Progress. 8/24-2t-ch

FOR SALE—A yellow rood goat in fine condition. A bargain to quick buyer. John Weinger, near Reed street. 8/24-3t-pd

FOR SALE—150 old and young chickens, 1 cow 6 years old, 1 incubator, 1 brooder, 1 piano. Sell extra cheap. Gordon truck and implements. Must sell quickly. Ed Gill, Glen Richy, Pa. 8/24-5t-pd

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—4-room house with light. Inquire Mrs. Hartwick Logan 501 Sixth St., East End. 8/25-tf-ch

FOR RENT—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping. Call 120 Cemetery Road. 8/25-tf-ch

ITEMS OF INTEREST

1c per word for each insertion Minimum Charge 25 Cents

Now is the time to have your coal lands tested. We have a drill in your vicinity and would be pleased to quote you prices. Call us on the phone: H. & C. 38-E, Bell 43. 8/24-5t-ch

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR A YOUNG MAN

We are appointing a few additional young energetic salesmen to sell Derrysale Housekeeping Linens in small towns to the Retail Dry Goods Stores. It is not necessary to have experience as a traveling salesman, but you must have Retail Dry Goods experience and are required to travel the small towns in the surrounding territory. To the right person we will advance reasonable traveling expenses against commission. When applying give full particulars as to your experience, covering the last three years, also references. Apply in writing to Derrysale Linen Company, 23 East 22nd Street, New York City.

PIANO RECITAL IN WINBURNE

The recital given by the piano pupils of Miss Ruth Newton in the Presbyterian church Friday evening was a very charming affair and afforded genuine pleasure to the large audience. Miss Newton, a senior of Wilson College and a gifted musician is to be congratulated on the wonderful progress her young pupils have made during the summer, and on her success as a teacher.

Alma Litke, the most advanced pupil, played a beautiful piece in an accomplished manner. Elizabeth Thorp and Helen Thomas rendered solos in fine style. The remaining six or eight performers were tiny tots and beginners and all acquitted themselves well and showed signs of careful tutoring.

Several jolly musical games taken part in by seven very small dainty maidens, each song being accompanied on the piano by a pupil, concluded the very attractive program.

Thackeray's Secret

Trackeray defied all rules. His wonderful eye saw everything and everybody. He lived and enjoyed life with an absolutely unimpaired and childlike zest, and his brave, simple, tender spirit endured to the end. Where other men are connoisseurs of fine flavors and delicate nuances Thackeray was a connoisseur of the broadest and biggest things of life—its pathos, its absurdity, its courage, its loyalty.

Acquiring Ability

The very best way to get ability is to do thoroughly whatever you do. Master every detail of work that falls to your lot.—Selected.

LEGAL

SHERIFF'S SALE Of Valuable Real Estate By Virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale in the Arbitrator Room, in the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield, on Friday, September 1, 1922, at 10:30 A. M., the following described property, to wit: To be sold on the writ of Fieri Facias on Friday, the first day of September, at 10:30 A. M. All that certain lot or parcel of ground situate in the Township of Lawrence, County of Clearfield, and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: to wit: Beginning at a post corner of land of Amos L. Hess and being four hundred and four feet east from the intersection of the road leading from Clearfield to Litz Bridge and from Clearfield to Clover Hill; thence by line of said Amos Hess south two hundred ten feet to a post thence east one hundred and four feet to a post; thence north two hundred and ten feet to a post on line of public road leading to Litz Bridge; thence by line of said road west one hundred and four feet to post and place of beginning. Containing one-half acre, more or less and being the same premises which W. P. Hess by deed dated October 1, 1921 and recorded in Deed Book 251 page 6, conveyed to said Frank F. Ruffner.

Having erected thereon a one and one-half story frame house and necessary outbuildings.

Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Frank F. Ruffner, with notice to Gertrude Ruffner and Carl Ruffner, terre tenants.

Terms of Sale: The price or sum at which the property shall be struck off must be paid at the time of the sale, or such other arrangement as shall be approved, otherwise the property will be put up and sold again at the risk and expense of the person to whom it was struck off, and who, in case of deficiency at such re-sale, shall make good the same and in no instance will the deed be presented for confirmation unless the money is actually paid to the Sheriff's Office. 8/10-17-24-31ch 8/5-12-19-26ch

BIDS WANTED Notice is hereby given that bids will be received up until September 11, 1922 for the furnishing of coal to the Clearfield Hospital for a period of one year beginning October 1, 1922. Bidders are requested to designate vein of coal upon which mining operations are had and give net ton price delivered.

Bids may be left with the undersigned. H. B. HARTSWICK, Secretary. 8/26 9 2-9-ch

SHERIFF'S SALE

On Valuable Real Estate Situate on a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pa., and to me directed, there will be exposed for Public Sale in the Arbitrator Room, in the Court House, Clearfield Borough, on Friday, September 1, 1922, at 10:30 o'clock A. M. the following described property, to wit: To be sold on a writ of Fieri Facias on Friday, September 1, 1922 at 10:30 A. M.

All that certain piece of land situate in the Township of Brady, County of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, described as follows:

Beginning at a post at corner of lands of R. H. Moore and the Public Road leading to Luthersburg; thence by line of said Public Road N. 9° 24' E. seven hundred thirty-three and nine-tenths feet to a post; thence still by line of said Public Road N. 23° 35' E. twenty-four and five-tenths feet to a post at lands of the DuBois Brewing Company; thence by line of lands of the DuBois Brewing Company S. 89° 20' East nine hundred and sixty feet to a stone at other lands of the DuBois Brewing Company; thence by line of lands of the said DuBois Brewing Company S. 0° 15' W. one thousand three and two tenths feet to a post at lands of R. H. Moore; thence by line of lands of R. H. Moore N. 89° 30' E. eleven hundred seventy-five feet to a post at Public Road first mentioned; thence by line of said Public Road containing twenty-three and eighty seven one-hundredths acres, more or less. Being the same land as described in mortgage of the said Alvah A. Shafer and Elsie G. Shafer to Laura E. Wachob, dated 13th of September, 1917, recorded at Clearfield in Mortgage Book 56, page 306.

Having thereon erected a small shed

FARM FOR SALE

I offer the following farm and its contents for sale at a real bargain to a quick buyer. Just the farm for any man to make a good investment and start in farming.

Farm known as the James Norman farm, located in Lawrence township near O'Shanter, Pa. Five minute walk to New York Central station. Acreage, 85.

50 acres cleared in good state of cultivation. 35 acres in woodland estimated as follows: 30,000 props. 13,000 motor ties. 9,000 feet hemlock. 16,000 feet of pine. 10,000 feet of hardwood. 200 Railroad ties.

This farm is underlaid with three seams of coal, namely B, C, and C Prime good workable seams.

Good eight-room house practically new. Good barn forty feet square. Two good work horses that weigh 1,500 each. Two good milk cows. Four head of young cattle. Seventy-five chickens, two hogs, wagon and harness, corn, plow, and mowing machine, and various other implements too numerous to mention. Twelve tons of timothy and clover hay in the barn. Two hundred and twenty dozen of oats, five acres of good corn. Five and one-half of good buckwheat. Three acres of good wheat, one and one-half acres of potatoes.

Good peach orchard on the farm. Good apple orchard on the farm. Good spring water on the farm. Running water in the house. House is illuminated by acetylene gas.

For particulars communicate by letter or by phone, Room 6, Penn Public Service Building, both phones: H. & C., 492, Bell, 194, Clearfield, Pa.

Isaac H. Robinson 8/15-tf-ch

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Greenville, Pa., Aug. 24. (U. P.)—Old Salem Cemetery, resting place of the only woman whose two sons were governor of two states at the same time—Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania and Governor Pattison of California, is being restored under direction of local civic organizations. The cemetery which has not been in use for some years, also was the resting place of soldiers who served in the revolutionary war and the war of 1812.

The above news dispatch appeared in the daily papers of the State today and while it recites a remarkable circumstance, it is not altogether correct. So far as we know, however the only wrong statement in the paragraph is the claim that Mrs. Pattison was the only woman whose two sons were Governors of two states at the same time. The facts as recorded in Pennsylvania history show that while she possessed that unusual honor she was not the first woman to be so honored.

The honor of being the first woman whose sons were governors of two states at the same time also happened to be a Pennsylvanian. She was the mother of the late Governor William Bigler, one of Clearfield's most illustrious sons and a man whose name and achievements were closely interwoven with much of the constructive history of the Keystone state during the trying times immediately preceding and following the Civil war.

William Bigler was elected Governor of Pennsylvania at the fall election in 1851 and strange to say his elder brother John Bigler was chosen governor of the State of California at the same time. Governor Bigler died in 1880, aged 66 years, 7 months and 8 days. We publish the following biography of this great Pennsylvanian, in which the incident referred to in the opening paragraph of this article is shown.

WILLIAM BIGLER A Democrat of the Old School and His Study Public Service

William Bigler was born at Shermansburg, Cambria county, Pa., in December, 1813. His parents, Jacob and Susan Dock, sister of Judge Dock, of Harrisburg, were of German descent and were educated, like most children of their origin, in both the German and English tongues. While very young his parents removed to Mercer county, having purchased a large tract of wild land, in the hope of building up their fortunes; but the title proving defective, they found themselves in a short time bereft of everything but a small farm. The children had a severe struggle with life and William drifted into a printing office. From 1830 to 1833 he was employed by his brother John, in the office of the Centre Democrat, published at Bellefonte. At the end of that period, influenced by the advice of his friends, among whom was Andrew G. Curtin, since Governor of the Commonwealth, he decided, though not without many misgivings, to remove to Clearfield and commence the publication of a political paper. Young Bigler had no money, but he possessed about everything else requisite to the publication of a paper. With the aid of friends he secured some old type and a second-hand and a mine opening. Seized, into execution and to be sold as the property of Alvah A. Shafer and Elsie G. Shafer.

Terms of Sale: The price or sum at which the property shall be struck off must be paid at the time of the sale, or such other arrangements made as will be approved, otherwise the property will be immediately put up and sold again at the expense and risk of the person to whom it was struck off, and who, in case of deficiency at such re-sale, shall make good the same, and in no instance will the deed be presented for confirmation unless the money is actually paid to the Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office. 8/12-19-26-30ch Aug. 10, 1922

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE In the estate of Maria L. Shoemaker, late of the township of Morris, county of Clearfield, Pa., deceased.

Letters testamentary having been granted to the undersigned, all persons having claims against said estate at once and all persons having claims against said estate should present same, duly authenticated, without delay.

FRANK T. WATKINS, Executor, Morrisdale, Pa. 8/19-26 9/2-9-16-23-pd.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE In the estate of Susan Curran, late of Morris township, Clearfield County, Pa., deceased.

Letters testamentary having been granted to the undersigned, all persons having claims against said estate should present same, duly authenticated, for prompt settlement.

FRANK T. WATKINS, Executor, Morrisdale, Pa. 8/19-26 9/2-9-16-23-pd.

press; then as he used to say he "started an eight-by-ten Jackson paper to counteract the influence of a seven-by-nine Whig paper which had preceded him into that mountain region." This new paper was called the Clearfield Democrat. Bigler did nearly all the work, writing the editorials, setting the type and working the old hand press. With all these drawbacks the publication was a very spirited one, but it was not a source of immediate wealth. He was deep in politics, however, and soon acquired a reputation for good judgment and sincerity. His uniform courtesy toward everybody made him a general favorite, and it is said of him that he was a real backwoodsman, a good hunter and the best marksman with a rifle in all the county—accomplishments which in those days by no means detracted from his influence as a political leader.

In 1836 or shortly after Mr. Bigler, having married a daughter of Alexander B. Reed, of Clearfield, disposed of his paper and entered into partnership with his father-in-law in mercantile business. He engaged in his new pursuit with his usual industry and energy and in a brief period placed himself in the front rank of the merchants and dealers in lumber in that section. From 1845 to 1850 he was by far the largest producer of lumber or square timber on the west branch of the Susquehanna river. But his previous active participation in politics and his well-known views on public questions kept him prominently before the people. He was an ardent advocate of a convention to amend the State Constitution and was presented from his county as a delegate to that body, but he declined to be a candidate.

In 1841 he was nominated for the State Senate, and, though much to his pecuniary disadvantage, he accepted the nomination. The district was composed of the counties of Armstrong, Indiana, Cambria and Clearfield and he was elected by a majority of over 3,000. Though opposed by a regularly nominated candidate of the Whig party he received every vote in Clearfield county save one, a result unprecedented in the history of politics. The term of service upon which he now entered covered a period of unusual difficulty in the management of the affairs of the State. He was elected Speaker of the Senate in the spring of 1843, was re-elected at the opening of the session of 1844, and in October following was returned for a second term. Mr. Bigler did not desire again to be a candidate, and so declined was he to continuing in public life, that he had instructed the delegates from Clearfield to the nominating convention to withdraw his name, which they did but the delegates from the other counties composing the district conferred the nomination on him notwithstanding, and he was elected by a vote much larger than the regular party vote. In 1848 his name was presented as a candidate for Governor, and he received a large vote in the Democratic Nominating Convention of that year; but the choice fell upon Morris Longstreth, then a Canal Commissioner, who was defeated by William F. Johnson. In 1849 Mr. Bigler was appointed one of the Revenue Commissioners, whose duty it was to adjust the amount to be raised by taxation in the different sections and counties of the State.

(Continued Till Monday.)

THE STOCK REPORT

New York, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Traders with bearish tendencies tried to expel the uncertainty felt in the financial community over the proposals of the Government to secure legislation authorizing taking over of the anthracite mines and such railroads as are unable to meet traffic demands. Their success in bringing about lower levels was confined to Baldwin and one or two other speculative leaders on which they centered their efforts. Prices on the general list were steady. New highs were registered in Continental Can, Liggett & Myers American Tobacco, North American and Consolidated Gas.

American Locomotive	119
American Sumatra Tobacco	155
Baldwin Loco	126
Baltimore & Ohio	58
Bethlehem B	78
Central Leather	41 1/4
Cruikshank Steel	93 1/4
General Motors	14
Great Northern Ry.	93
Lackawanna	80 1/4
Lehigh Valley	68 1/2
Middle States Oil	13 1/2
Midvale Steel	35 1/2
N. Y. C.	98 1/2
Pennsylvania	46 1/4
Sinclair Oil	32 1/2
Studebaker	129 1/4
Texas Co.	48
U. S. Rubber	57 1/4
U. S. Steel	105
Willis Overland	6 1/2
Call money	3
Liberty Bonds Closing.
Liberty 3 1/2's	100.66
Liberty 2nd 4 1/2's	100.20
Liberty 3rd 4 1/2's	100.40
Liberty 4th 4 1/2's	100.66
Victory 4 1/2's	100.03

Tom Sims SAYS--

Only four more shopping months until Christmas.

This is the age of machines. Some machines even elect men.

Your sins may find you out, but your collectors sometimes find you in. When she hasn't a thing to wear, she calls it a bathing suit.

Collars are a dollar a dozen in Perlin, but probably need stroping every hundred miles.

Michigan woman had 111 operations. Guess what she talked about?

One at school beats nine at pool. Drawback about living in a swell neighborhood is acting bored.

Sometimes we think girls are like salads. All about the same except different dressings.

If ignorance is bliss, a man with an ivory dome is solid comfort.

The question of the hour is "What time is it?"

Ohio man shot himself because he had a wife too many. We don't know how many he had.

Two's a crowd and three's a mob according to Kansas laws.

They close so tight on Sunday in Piqua, O., several Pique men want to change the "a" to "e".

Chief Radknife won't let his squaws dance all night. Shake, Red.

Beauty hint: Stay at home with your hay fever.

Just Wanted to Know. We were out to dinner and little brother piped up, just as the meal was about over: "Father, please pass the jelly, or is it scenery?"—Chicago Tribune.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

YOUNGEST CLEARFIELD COUNTY LAWYER

The baby member of the Clearfield County Bar is Thomas Allen, Esq., of DuBois. Tom Allen is the son of ex-Postmaster and Mrs. Con Allen, and is a promising young attorney already admitted to the practise of law in the State and United States Supreme Court. Shortly after Judge Bell opened court this morning, his son Cortes Bell, Esq., arose and moved that Thomas Allen be admitted to the practise of the law in the several courts of Clearfield county. Judge Bell carried through the necessary formula, the oath was administered and Mr. Allen was soon entitled to use the proud title of baby member of the Clearfield County Bar. Ex-Postmaster Con Allen of DuBois was present and witnessed the ceremony incident to his son's admission to the bar.

—Try Our Business Printing Dept.—

Take Care OF YOUR Kidneys

The source of many ills has been traced to the Kidneys and Bladder. When these organs function properly there is much less chance for Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Lamé Back and Similar Ailments

ALBERT'S

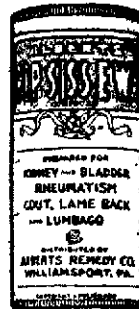

PIP'SISS EWA

Is the Sure Remedy for Kidney Troubles

In the days of our forefathers PIP'SISS EWA was the one herb with which they were all familiar. For ages it has been known as a sure remedy for Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Albert's Genuine Pip Siss Ewa is an old-time remedy put up in modern day form—the handy tablet form that is most convenient for all uses. Full eighteen days treatment costs but 75 cents.

Accept No Substitute—Ask for ALBERT'S GENUINE PIP'SISS EWA

On Sale in Clearfield by C. R. BLOOM, Druggist.

THE BUFFET LUNCH

No. 2 Nichols Street

SPECIAL FOR SUNDAY DINNER

CANTALOUPE CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP PICKLES CELERY OLIVES

ROAST SPRING DUCKLING

With Filling

ROAST PORK

With Apple Sauce

MASHED POTATOES CREAMED NEW BEETS CUCUMBER AND TOMATO SALAD

PIE CAKE ICE CREAM TEA COFFEE MILK ICED TEA

65c

©1921 A.S.M.HUTCHINSON

BEGIN HERE TODAY
In the summer of 1914, MARK SABRE finds that he is estranged from human sympathy and understanding with the sole exception of

LADY NONA TYBAR, an old sweet-heart, now happily married. Sabre's broom and an obnoxious wife. MABEL fails to understand her husband's poetic and whimsical temperament. In business he is undermined by jealous associates in the firm of Fortune, East and Sabre and a promised partnership is diverted from him to TYBARING. At this point, Nona's life with Tybar becomes intolerable and she asks Sabre to take her away. War is declared and Sabre rushes to secure a commission. He speaks to Colonel Rattray of the Pinks.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Eh? Into what?"
"The war." It was easier, after the plunge, "I see in the papers that civilians are being given commissions by recommendation. Can you get me a commission?"

Colonel Rattray showed surprise. "Well, I don't know, I might have a look at it. If you're eligible. How old are you, Sabre?"

"Thirty-six."
Colonel Rattray said doubtfully, "Come on up to the mess in the morning and I'll get our doctor to have a look at you. Then we'll see what can be done. All right, eh?"

III

He said nothing to Mabel of his intention. It was just precisely the sort of thing he could not possibly discuss with Mabel. Mabel would say, "Whyever should you?" and of all imaginable ordeals the idea of exposing before Mabel his feeling about England . . . he would tell her when it was done, if it came off.

And his thought was, when a few hours later he was walking slowly away from his interview with Major Earnshaw, the doctor at the barracks, "Thank God, I never said anything to Mabel about it."

Major Earnshaw had very pleasantly "had a go at this heart of yours." Withdrawn his stethoscope and shaken his head. It was "no go; absolutely none, Sabre."

"Well, but that's for a commission. I'll go into the ranks."
"You can't possibly go in as you are now. The standards will probably be reduced, but they'll have to be reduced a goodish long way before you'll get in. I don't mind telling you."

IV

Then came another of the frightful undings of his emotions. The occasion was that of his meeting with Harkness outside the County Times office. Harkness was a captain of the battalion that had gone out who had been left behind owing to some illness. The British Expeditionary Force had been in action.

Sabre said, "News? Anything about the Pinks?"
Harkness nodded. He seemed to be swallowing. Then he said, "Yes, the regiment. Pretty bad."

Sabre said, "Any one—?" and also stopped.
Harkness looked, not at Sabre, but straight across the top of his head and began an appalling, and as it seemed to Sabre, an endless recitative. "The Colonel's killed. Bruce is killed. Otway's killed—"

"Otway's killed. Bullen's killed—"
Endless! The names struck Sabre like successive blows. Were they never going to end?

"Carmichael's killed. My young brother's—" his voice cracked—"killed. Sikes is killed."
"Sikes killed . . . And your

brother . . ."
Harkness said in a very thin, squeaking voice, "Yes, the regiment's pretty well—The regiment's—"
He looked full at Sabre and said in a very loud, defiant voice, "I bet they were magnificent. Oh, my God, why the hell wasn't I there?" He turned abruptly and went away, walking rather faintly.

This was the moment at which Sabre descended upon Sabre, never to leave him while he remained in "it," the appalling sense of oppression that the war exercised upon him. On his brain like a weight, on his heart like a pressing hand

V

And still events; still, and always, now, disturbing things.
While he stood there he was suddenly aware of Young Rod, Pole or Perch, rather luxuriously come up.

"I say, Sabre, have you heard this frightful news about the Pinks?—I want you to talk to my mother. She'll listen to you. I'm going to enlist."

Sabre said, "Good Lord are you, Perch? Must you? Your mother, why, what on earth will she do without you? She'll—"
Young Perch winced painfully. "I know, it pretty well kills me to think of it and I'm having the most frightful scenes with her. But I've thought it all out, Sabre, and I know I'm doing the right thing. This is, well, this is a chap's country, and I've figured it out it's got to come before my mother. It's got to. She says it will kill her if I go. I believe it will, Sabre."

He rubbed a hand across his eyes and broke off. "Never mind about that; I know what I've got to do. You know lots of people. Well, I want to get hold of some nice girl to live with in my place while I'm away. A sort of companion, aren't they called? I want someone who my mother will indignantly call a bit of a child—she gave rather a broken little laugh—"can't I hear her say it? I'll say, Sabre, do for God's sake help me. Do you know anyone?"

This frightful war! Was it going to attack even that pathetic little old woman at Puncer's Farm with her fumbling hands and her frail existence centered solely in her son? He said, "I'm awfully sorry, Perch. Frightfully sorry for your mother, and for you. I'll help you all I can. It's a funny coincidence but I believe I do know just the very girl that would be what you want—"

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

VI

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman in my office, an old chap called Bright. He's got a daughter about eighteen or thereabouts, and I was hearing he wanted to get her into some kind of post like yours. I've spoken to her once or twice when she's been about the place for her father and I took a tremendous fancy to her. She's as pretty as a picture. Effie, she's called. I believe your mother would take to her no end. And she'd just love your mother."

It was from Twynning that Sabre had heard that a post of some sort was being considered for Effie Bright. Her father, as he had told Fortune, East and Sabre's, "Mr. Bright." A massive old man with a massive, rather striking face beneath a bald dome and thickly grown all about and down the throat with stiff white hair. He was intensely religious and he had the deepest and extraordinarily penetrating eyes that frequently denote the religious zealot.

Extraordinary that such a stern and hard old man should have for daughter such a fresh and lovable girl of a young thing as his Effie Bright. Effie Sabre always called her, inventing her names. Mr. Bright had a little cupboard called his office at the foot of the main stairway and Bright Effie came often to see her father there. Sabre had spoken to her in the little cupboard or just outside. He had delight in watching the most extraordinary shining that she had in her eyes.

It was like reading an entertaining book, he used to think, and he had the idea that humor of that sort kind which is unbounded and mingled with unbounded sense of the oddities of life was packed to bursting within her.

Some such apprehension of her Sabre had expressed to Twynning. Twynning had given a short laugh and said, "You seem to have been thinking a lot about the fair Effie." The kind of laugh and the kind of look that Sabre hated and he had a slight gesture which Twynning said meant that he hated

"What's old Bright going to do with her?"
"He doesn't quite know. He's an idea of getting her out as a sort of lady's companion somewhere."
"This was what Sabre had remembered, and he went straight from Young Perch to Twynning and related the conversation.
"Twynning said, 'Hello, still interested in the fair Effie?'
"It's for young Perch over at Penny Green I'm asking. For his mother. He's a young man." Sabre permitted his eyes to rest for a moment on Harold, seated at his desk—did he feel he ought to join the army? He wants the girl to be with his mother while he's away."
Twynning, noting the glance, changed his tone to one of much friendliness. "Oh, I see, old man. No. Effie's got nothing yet. She was over to our place to tea last Sunday."
"Good. I'll go and talk to old Bright. I'm keen about this."
"Yes, you seem to be, old man."

VII

Mr. Bright received the suggestion with a manner that irritated Sabre. While he was being told of the Punks he stared at Sabre with that penetrating gaze of his as though in the proposal he searched for some motive other than common friendliness. His first comment was "They'll want references, I suppose, Mr. Sabre."

Sabre smiled. "Oh, scarcely, Mr. Bright. Not when they know who you are."
The old man was standing before Sabre bending his head close towards him as though he wanted to sense out some hidden motive behind all this. He contracted his great brows as if to squeeze more penetration into his gaze. "Yes, but I'll want references, Mr. Sabre. She's not going here, there, nor anywhere."

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Young Perch grasped his hand in delighted relief. "Oh, Sabre, if you do, I feel you would help."
"The chance I'm thinking about I was hearing of only a few days ago. The work's foreman

THE CLEARFIELD PROGRESS
Published every day except Sunday by the Progressive Publishing Company, Progress Building, Clearfield, Pennsylvania.
G. ALBERT STEWART, Managing Editor.
J. D. CONNELLY, City Editor
R. S. NIGHTINGALE, Adv. Mgr.
A. M. BRAUND, Foreman.
—OFFICERS—
R. H. SOMMERVILLE, President. G. A. STEWART, Sec. and Treas.
H. & C. Telephone No. 176. Bell Phone No. 47
—TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION BY MAIL—
One Year$4.00
Six Months$3.00
Three Months$1.50
One Month$.50
By Carrier 12 cents per Week Payable to Carrier
Entered in Post Office at Clearfield, Pa., as second class mail matter.

Inspectors of the Pennsylvania Railroad have completed another check upon automobile drivers at selected highway crossing in Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, to determine the extent and character of carelessness display in driving motor cars over railroad tracks. The facts in 831 specific cases of gross negligence have been compiled and analyzed. The following forms of careless driving were noted:

- Failing to look in either direction for trains.
- Disregarding the stop signal of crossing watchmen.
- Driving under crossing gates in front of trains while gates were being lowered.
- Running on crossings before stopping, not having car under control.
- Stalling on the tracks.
- Stopping cars on crossings and turning around on the tracks.
- Paying no attention to the locomotive warning whistles.
- Racing automobiles across the tracks to beat trains.

At one crossing, during a period of 17 hours, 73 cars, bearing license tags from five different states, averaged 37 miles per hour when running across the railroad tracks and in two instances they were making almost a mile a minute.

At another crossing 19 new and inexperienced drivers were observed, 15 tried to "beat" other automobiles across the railroad tracks and one car was driven 25 miles per hour in the dark without lights.

It was not possible to tell how many cars had defective brakes, but four recent accidents at crossings on the Pennsylvania System were ascertained to be due to this cause.

The Pennsylvania Railroad System is working in co-operation with the American Railway Association to reduce the fatalities and other accidents occurring at grade crossings. Seven thousand lives are lost annually in the United States in mishaps of this kind. The railroads of the country are at present conducting a "Careful Crossing Campaign," which started June 1st and will be continued until September 30th, for the sole purpose of urging the American people to "CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
Sunday School
'Lesson'
(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
President of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
Copyright 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 27
NEHEMIAH'S PRAYER
LESSON TEXT—Neh. 1:1-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."
—Jas. 5:16.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Ex. 33:20-34;
1 Sam. 7:6-11; Matt. 9:37, 38; Acts 1:12-14; Eph. 3:14-21.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Nehemiah Talking to God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Prayer of the King's Cupbearer.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Prayer as a Preparation for All Endeavoring.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Prayer and Power.

I. Nehemiah Learns of the Distress of the Captives (vv. 1-3).

1. When (v. 1). Twentieth year of the reign of Artaxerxes (2:1).

2. The month Chisleu corresponds to our December. It was while performing his duty as cupbearer to the Persian king. While in this important position there entered into his heart a desire to honor God and do good to his people. A young man can be true to God in any position in life if he sets his heart on Jesus Christ and communes with Him by prayer and study of God's word. A man may be elevated to a high position, prosper in business, and yet live a life unspotted from the world.

2. By Whom (v. 2). His brother Hanani and certain men of Judah brought him the news. His inquiry shows that though he was prosperous he did not forget his unfortunate brethren. We should never let our success and well-being shut out sympathy for the oppressed and suffering.

3. The Nature of the Distress (v. 3). The wall of Jerusalem was broken down. Its gates were burned with fire and the remnant of the captives were in great affliction and reproach.

II. Nehemiah's Sorrow (v. 4).

The news of his brethren's distress greatly moved Nehemiah. He sat down and wept and mourned several days. He fasted and prayed before God. God's people are so essentially one that the affliction and shame of the one is the affliction and shame of all. No one will ever do much to help a distressed people who does not deeply feel their desolation. Nehemiah's sorrow was not the kind that says "I pity you" and goes on in ways of selfishness without making an effort to help. True pity expresses itself in an effort to help.

III. Nehemiah's Prayer (vv. 5-11).

He knew where to go for help. He took the matter upon his heart to God in prayer. The first and best way to help others is to pray for them. Nehemiah did not merely pray; he left his place at the Persian court and journeyed to Jerusalem and took hold with his own hands. Our prayers and tears must be translated into definite action if we would be of real help to others. Note the characteristics of this prayer.

1. Its Worshipful Spirit (v. 5). He recognized God as the great and terrible One, the Lord God of heaven. True prayer shows that spirit of worship.

2. Its Ground (v. 5). It was on the ground of covenant relation that He besought God. On this ground all who are in Christ Jesus can come and plead before God.

3. It Was Persistent (v. 6). He prayed day and night. God is pleased when His servants are persistent in their pleadings with Him. Those who understand the covenant relation will be importunate in their petitions.

4. It Was Accompanied by Confession of Sin (vv. 6, 7). In this confession he mentioned definitely his sin (v. 7). We should specify the sins which we have committed. Most people when praying are too general in their confessions.

5. He Pleads God's Promises (vv. 8, 9). In our praying we should remind God of His own words. It is when His words abide in us that we can intelligently pray (John 15:17). If we would be successful in our praying we should fill our minds with God's promises.

6. He Pleads Relationship (v. 10). He reminds God that they were His children by redemption. Those who are in Christ are God's children by redemption through His precious blood. The child has a claim upon its father. God's children have a claim upon Him.

7. It Was Intercessory Prayer (v. 11). With intense earnestness he definitely prayed that God would give him favor before the king in order that he might be enabled to help his people. The king's favor was needed in order to enable him to help his brethren. God is able to move the heart of a heathen king and thus further His own cause by means of the prayer of a humble servant.

The Cunning Man.
A cunning man overreaches no one half as much as himself.—H. W. Beecher.

God's Love.
Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.—John 3:1.

The Fool.
To be a man's fool is bad enough, but the vain man is everybody's.—Penn.

Progress Job Work Satisfies.

—Advertising Bring —Results.

CHURCHES

WEST SIDE METHODIST EPISCOPAL
William L. Armstrong, Minister.
9:30 a. m., Bible school, H. L. Shaw superintendent.
10:45 a. m., public worship with sermon. Theme, "The Inspiration and Comfort of His Presence."
6:30 p. m. vesper service in hymnology.
After the prayer service on Wednesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday school board will convene.

ST. JOHNS LUTHERAN CHURCH
9:15 Sunday school.
10:30 Morning worship. Sermon by Rev. J. M. Johnson, D. D., of Gary, Ind. Subject, "The Present Crisis, a Challenge to the Church."
No evening worship.
Wednesday evening at 7:30, quiet hour. We expect an able speaker with a message of interest to all. Attendance last Wednesday, 143. Are we able to beat it?

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
L. S. Snell, Pastor.
10:00 Bible school.
11:00 Morning worship. Theme "What We Were and What We Are."
7:30 Evening service. Subject "The Christian Race."
8:00 p. m., Wednesday, prayer service and Bible study.
Don't forget the change in the hour of service beginning the first Sunday in September. Morning worship at 10:30 and Bible school at 11:45. We invite you to worship with us.

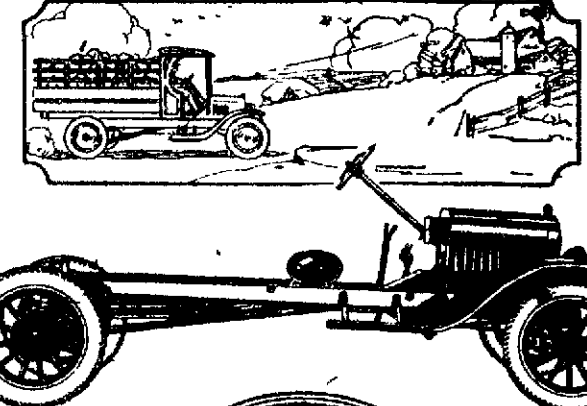

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE TENT SERVICES
Rev. A. N. Salvie, Pastor.
All the services are held in the tent near the B. & P. station. Saturday evening prayer service at 7:30 in the tent, followed by an open air home, accused him of attacking Mrs. Cline, challenged him to a revolver duel in a vacant room upstairs and how the man turned on him and attacked him on the stairs. When Bergen was taken to the police where he died he was just able to scrawl on a sheet of paper "George Kline killed me."

MOVIE TRAGEDY AT EDGEWATER BEING STUDIED BY POLICE
Edgewater, N. J., Aug. 26.—The story of George Cline, movie director, that he shot John Bergen, movie actor, in self defense after they had arranged to fight a duel over an alleged attack upon Mrs. Cline, was discontinued today by the police. George London, driver of the taxicab in which Bergen drove to Cline's home where he was mortally wounded, struck the hardest blow at Cline's duel story. He told detectives that after depositing Bergen at the Cline home he had not driven more than two hundred feet until he heard a shot and a woman scream. This does not tally with Cline's story that he accused Bergen of attacking Mrs. Cline and that Bergen was then given a revolver with which to fight a duel.

FARMER CONFESSES BURNING NEIGHBOR'S BARN
Franklin, Pa., Aug. 26.—Elwood Hoover, a farmer, confessed today to firing the barn of Perry Deslinger near Fryburg Wednesday night, which caused the loss of $3500, including the season's crops and four horses. Hoover declared he sought revenge on Deslinger who advised him to invest $2500 in a quab farm in Butler County which failed recently.

A Substitute.
Mrs. Pester—"Miss Yellowleaf always has some kind of an animal pet around." Mr. Pester—"A woman has to have something to order about, even if she has no husband."

Must Go on Forever.
Time is like a river made up of the events which happen, and a violent stream; for as soon as a thing has been seen, it is carried away, and another comes in its place and this will be carried away, too.—Marcus Aurelius.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

$430
Economical Haulage
F.O.B. Detroit
Equipment:
Pneumatic Tires and Demountable Rims. Your choice of either the standard gearing of 8 1/2 to 1 for good delivery of the standard gearing of 7 1/2 to 1 for heavy hauling.

Do you realize that the Ford One-Ton Truck at $430 is not only the most wonderful truck value ever offered but the most economical means of solving your haulage and delivery problems, whether you are a farmer, merchant or manufacturer?

Let us give you all the facts.

CLEARFIELD CENTRAL GARAGE COMPANY
Rear Dimeling Hotel
Sales Room Murray Bldg., Cl'd, Pa.

Man Gives Way in Another Quarter

Women have taken to polo, soccer and other sports which have heretofore been considered for men exclusively. Man has also considered chess a game too deep for the feminine intellect, but here you see a tournament held in London for women only. Mrs. M. Stollas (left) and Mrs. R. Stevenson in the foreground.

LIQUID ASSETS
The aim of the County National's management has always been to keep its assets, in so far as possible, in liquid shape, so that every customer entitled to credit can be accommodated on request.
At the time of the latest statement, the bank had cash assets, (cash on hand or deposited with other banks and demand loans) of $1,064,623.83.
For many years the County National Bank has not found it necessary to refuse a request for a loan on account of lack of available funds.
Your account is invited on the assurance that you may obtain such loans as your financial condition and your account with the bank warrant.

The County National Bank
Of Clearfield
The Oldest Bank in Clearfield County
Invested Capital Over $1,200,000.00

KEEP YOUR CAR LIKE NEW
Fenders and bodies repaired.
Auto tops.
Seat covers.
Curtains.
Upholstering.
AUTOMOBILE PAINTING.
Nickel and silver plating.
The oldest, largest and most completely equipped shop in this section of the State.
Ask your neighbor about us.
S. A. HITE & SONS
2510-14 Seventh Ave. Altoona, Pa.
Bell Phone 1936

KEYSTONE ICE CREAM WILL MAKE YOUR SUNDAY DINNER BETTER THAN USUAL IF YOU'LL SERVE PLENTY FOR DESSERT.
KEYSTONE'S BETTER BECAUSE IT'S CARBONATED.

SEND IN YOUR RED ENVELOPE
GIVE YOUR EYES THE CHANCE THEY SHOULD HAVE
You're going along straining them every time you read and by all means, if you want to have better eyes in your declining years, have your eyes opened by a mail who knows how to relieve the strain with proper glasses.
C. C. ARNOLD

Candies For Your Week-End Trip
You'll find plenty of candies here for your week-end eating and you'll also find that they are the regular good candies that you have become accustomed to getting here.
We have several different kinds and among them is the kind you are going to like best.
C. R. BLOOM
DRUGGIST
South Second Street
H. & C. 271-J, Bell 82-8

SCHOOL SUPPLIES
It won't be long before the ring of the school bell will break its ten-week silence and your kiddies will have to be outfitted for their start.
We have everything ready for them and there are many new things for this year's opening.
PENCILS
PEN HOLDERS
TABLETS
SCHOOL BAGS
PENCIL BOXES
ERASERS
DRINKING CUPS
BOOK STRAPS
Everything's ready for you and you should not let the first morning of school catch you unprepared.
Kurtz Stationery Store

ews of : 'Our Neighbors CURWENSVILLE

Miss Mabel Crissman and Mary McDowell of Clearfield, spent Thursday with Miss Estella Bulkley.

Miss Henrietta Maurey, of Granton, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday.

Miss Catherine Fell, of McKeesport, is visiting Miss Sarah Karstetter at her home on Filbert street.

Mrs. J. W. Edwards and son Bobby have returned to their home after visiting in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre for three weeks.

Margaret and Florence McKinley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McKinley are improving nicely after having their tonsils removed Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Patton of West Grove, Pa., motored to Curwensville yesterday and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Swoope and son Hewitt of Merion, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Swoope.

Mrs. H. H. Hopwood and Mrs. A. F. Maurey were shopping in Clearfield yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. LaBoarde and daughter have moved into a house on George street recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKenzie and children.

Misses Genevieve Maurey and Elizabeth Wall spent Friday afternoon in Clearfield.

Misses Bessie Clark, Helen Clark, Lucinda Clark and Mary Shinn and Messrs. Murry Clark and Charles Murray left yesterday for Bariesboro where they will camp for some time.

Mrs. James Thompson is spending a few days in DuBois with her mother Mrs. Patchell.

Misses Sarah Karstetter spent this afternoon in DuBois.

Miss Frances Schorr will leave on Monday for Braddock, Pa., where she will teach school through the coming year.

Mrs. Gordon Bloom, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Twigg on Irvin Hill.

WOODLAND

Miss Mame Lansberry of DuBois, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Verda Duffey, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting this week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Owen Duffey.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY AUGUST 28TH and 29TH LIBERTY THEATRE Madera, Pa.

The Home of High Class Photoplays

Jesse L. Lasky presents

Cecil B. DeMille's Greatest Production

"THE AFFAIRS OF ANATOLE" With the most imposing cast ever assembled in one photoplay—Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elton Dexter, Bobe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye Price.

Adults 35c, 50c Children 10c, 15c

SULPHUR VAPOR BATHS

For all kinds of Rheumatism, Kidney and Skin disorders, Colds, nervousness. Why spend time, money in going from home to hot springs when you have the remedy right here and get the results. Try a bath for that "tired feeling." You will be delighted with the results.

Mr. & Mrs. E. R. Wooster
148 W. Market Street
Phone H & C. 359-m
Clearfield, Pa.,

Mrs. J. C. Gingery is spending a week at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Miss Agnes Pike has returned from Lock Haven Normal where she has been attending the summer term.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Graffius, of Fairmont, West Va., and Miss Rose Baney, of Lock Haven, visited relatives here this week.

Edward Wisor, who has been a patient in the Clearfield Hospital returned to his home here on Thursday.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mrs. Chas. Johnson on Wednesday evening at the home of her mother Mrs. Robt Mitchell. About twenty-five ladies were present. Delicious refreshments were served and all had a delightful time. Mrs. Johnson received many pretty and useful gifts.

A number of our people attended the dollar day sale at Clearfield on Friday.

Mrs. O. Perry Simler and sons David and Richard, of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Glickler, of Punxsutawney; Mrs. Jos Dugan and two children and sister Dorothy Williams of Osceola, were guests on Friday at the home of J. M. Baker.

Mrs. H. B. Varner and Miss Lucy Stoner's classes of girls of the M. E. S. S. picked at Camp Golden Rod on Thursday.

Mrs. Hoffman, of Pittsburgh, visited this week at the home of Mrs. Robt. Mitchell.

Change Wrought by Time.
"You see, grandma, we perforate an aperture in the apex and a corresponding aperture in the base, and, by applying the egg to the lips and forcibly inhaling the breath, the shell is entirely emptied of its contents." "Dear me," exclaimed the old lady, "what wonderful improvements they do make! Now, in my younger days, they just made a hole in each end and sucked."

Two Things Life Taught Him.
The longest I live the more I am satisfied of two things: First, that the truest lives are those that are cut rose-diamond fashion, with many facets answering to the many-planned aspects of the world about them; secondly, that society is always trying in some way or other to grind us down to a single facet.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Courtesy, Above All.
We must be as courteous to a man as to a picture, which we are willing to give the benefit of a good night.—Emerson.

Old Sores, Piles, Burns and Scalds Heal Very Quickly

Your local druggist sells an ointment called San Cura that surely does do anything it is advertised to do or money back.
Thos. F. McCauley, Cooperstown, Pa., cut his finger; blood poison set in; arm swelled terribly; friends despaired; said arm must come off. San Cura Ointment drew out water and dark pus; agony ceased; arm and hand soon as good as ever.
It quickly draws out poison from sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, cuts, burns, scalds and bruises.
For itching, bleeding or protruding piles, it has received the highest endorsements, while innumerable cases are recorded where eczema, tetter and salt rheum were cured in the shortest possible time. San Cura Ointment, 15c, 35c, 65c and $1.25 at all Drug Store.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY AUGUST 28TH and 29TH LIBERTY THEATRE Madera, Pa.

The Home of High Class Photoplays

Jesse L. Lasky presents

Cecil B. DeMille's Greatest Production

"THE AFFAIRS OF ANATOLE" With the most imposing cast ever assembled in one photoplay—Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elton Dexter, Bobe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye Price.

Adults 35c, 50c Children 10c, 15c

SULPHUR VAPOR BATHS

For all kinds of Rheumatism, Kidney and Skin disorders, Colds, nervousness. Why spend time, money in going from home to hot springs when you have the remedy right here and get the results. Try a bath for that "tired feeling." You will be delighted with the results.

Mr. & Mrs. E. R. Wooster
148 W. Market Street
Phone H & C. 359-m
Clearfield, Pa.,

CABINET SETTLES

Continued from Page One

ed to the Senate early in the afternoon.
Washington, Aug. 25.—The Administration will seek legislation from Congress authorizing the taking over of certain railroads and anthracite mines if there is not a radical improvement in the industrial situation within a few days, it was indicated tonight after Senator Cummins, chairman of the Senate interstate commerce committee, and Attorney General Daugherty had conferred with President Harding for more than an hour.

Railroads will be given an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to furnish adequate service, it was declared, but those which cannot give proper service will be taken over by the Government under present plan.
If production of anthracite is not resumed "within a few days," it was added, a bill will be introduced in Congress to authorize the Government to take over the mines and produce coal.

Legislation to enable such seizures, Senator Cummins predicted, would be rushed through Congress quickly.

Proof Up to Roads.
The conference at the White House was held after President Harding had discussed the entire industrial situation with his cabinet at its regular meeting today, and after the New York rail conference had been terminated without result.

Immediately after the cabinet meeting, and before tonight's conference, however, it was stated by an administration spokesman that "no new steps were under consideration," and that the President had nothing definite to announce.

It was indicated in this connection that the President was resolved to see that adequate transportation was furnished and was firm in his determination to stand by his pronouncement to Congress last week that he was "resolved to use all the power of the Government to maintain transportation and sustain the right of men to work."

Reports have been received of sabotage on certain roads, particularly the Chesapeake & Ohio. There was no indication, however, that the Federal Government proposed taking immediate action to stop destruction of rail property.

RAIL FIGHT TO FINISH

New York, Aug. 25.—The rail

strike today developed into a fight to the finish when peace negotiations were blown sky high.

Heads of the big five railroad brotherhoods, acting as mediators between executives and striking shopmen in a final effort to effect separate settlements with individual roads after the Association of Railway Executives as a whole had rejected the running trades' first peace overtures, reported to the representatives of 77 roads at the Yale Club this morning that the shop crafts had turned down a proposition made to them yesterday by the carriers.

Negotiations then were broken off sharp and executives, strike leaders and brotherhood chiefs packed up their bags and began leaving town, prepared for a test of endurance.

Before he departed for his headquarters in Chicago, Bert M. Jewell, official spokesman for the strikers, asserted that he believed the executive who had lingered for the parley on individual settlements soon would be able "to bring home to their hard-shelled colleagues the railroad situation in its grim reality."

"We shall be content to let the condition of equipment prove that roads cannot operate with unskilled strike breakers," declared Mr. Jewell, adding later that "we can and will fight for our terms and for a nation-wide settlement."

Foods Rich in Proteids.

The reason why all forms of meat, cheese and eggs form so satisfying a diet is not because they are rich in calories but because they are rich in proteid. In order to be properly nourished, one may paraphrase the famous proverb, "Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of them selves," and make it read, "Take care of the proteid and the calories will take care of themselves."

Popping the Question.

Her Father—"You've been calling on my daughter for some time, young man. Why don't you come down to business?" Suitor—"Very well. How much are you going to leave her?"—Boston Transcript.

DR. LOUIS DAMMERS,
PHILADELPHIA EYESIGHT
SPECIALIST

One Day Only

CLEARFIELD

Dimeling Hotel Parlors

Wed., Aug. 30, 1922

9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

My Special Offer—

I offer you a perfect-fitting pair of glasses, including my scientific eye examination, special ground lenses, latest style shell eye-glass or spectacle, and an elegant case, at a special low price of

$3 (Complete)

This Visit Only
Dr. Louis Dammers,
1017 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

SUCH PAINS AS THIS WOMAN HAD

Two Months Could Not Turn in Bed.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Finally Restored Health

Seattle, Washington.—"I had dragging pains first and could not stand on my feet, then I had chills and fever and such pains in my right side and a hard lump there. I could not turn myself in bed and could not sleep. I was this way for over two months, trying everything any one told me, until my sister brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until all the hard pains had left me and I was able to be up and to do my work again. The hard lump left my side and I feel splendid in all ways. I know of many women it has helped."—Mrs. G. Richardson, 4610 Orcus St., Seattle, Washington.

This is another case of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought results after trying everything any one told me "had failed." If you are suffering from pain, nervousness and are always tired, if you are low spirited and go to bed nothing, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may not only relieve the present distress, but prevent the development of more serious trouble.

IRVINS "PEP" ORCHESTRA

"The Boys You Know"
Will Play For A

DANCE

CLEARFIELD DRIVING PARK
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30th

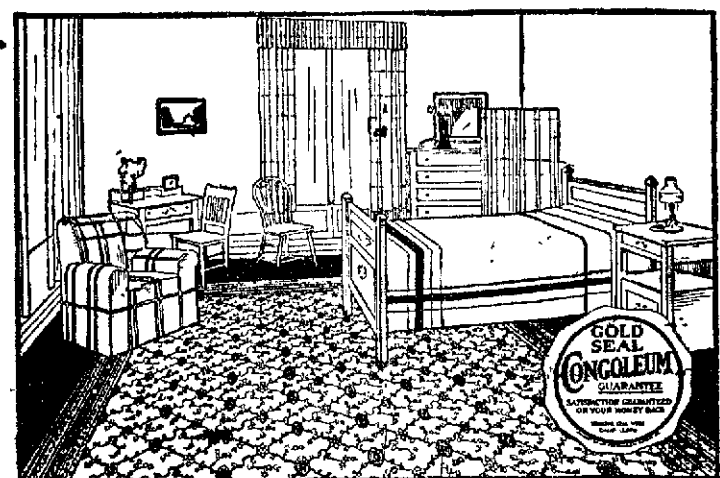

Dancing Nine to One.

Subscription $2.00—Extra Ladies 50c

Presented by

"The Bookers"

CONGOLEUM RUGS

—For Some Room In Every Home—

Congoleum "Gold Seal" Art Rugs possess so many desirable features, aside from their economy, that every housekeeper is sure to find one or two places in her home where this modern floor-covering will demonstrate its superiority over all other types of moderately priced floor-coverings.

Size 6x9 feet $8.10
Size 9x9 feet $12.15
Size 9x12 feet $16.20

Other sizes at proportionate prices.

ROSS & WOODS

HAVE YOUR WATCH FIXED HERE

There's no question about our ability to fix it and fix it so that it will run as you would like to have it run—RIGHT. We have been doing this thing in Clearfield for a long time now and we have earned some pretty compliments from our clients for the repair jobs we have done.

Whatever is wrong with your watch, we will fix it right and you'll be proud to have some one ask you for the time, as you can swear by it.

W. W. O'Brien

PRESCRIPTIONS

The most important ingredient in any prescription is quality. There is little value in drugs if those drugs do not possess quality that determines the remedial power. Send your prescriptions to

Irwin's Drug Store

—Try Our Business Printing Dept.—

Advertise in the Progress

Granada.
Granada, the last of the Spanish provinces on which the Moors retained a hold, was freed from that alien race by the forces of Ferdinand and Isabella the same year America was discovered, 1492.

Noticeable Resemblance.

"Isn't that a Dougherty?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle as they stopped for a moment to look at the new pictures. "Oh, my no, replied her hostess; 'It's a lion. But I told Josiah when he brought it home that it looked a good deal more like one of them things you mention.'"

Don't neglect that cough. Wenzel's Glycyrrhine or Tar and Wild Cherry will give relief without harmful dose or alcohol. 25c and 50c.

BOYS,—Could you love a girl who loved pretty clothes better than her own home?
GIRLS,—Could you love a boy who did not go in for dances, white lights, jazz music?

—SEE WHAT—

MARIE PREVOST

did in C. S. Montanye's happy story of the beautiful little cloak model who renounced the gay life and found happiness in the most unexpected manner.

Her Night of Nights

Presented by Carl Laemmle
Directed by Hobart Henley

—IT'S A UNIVERSAL—

Liberty Theatre Tonight

Blood Of The Caribbees!

The trail of Fortune's finger in the colorful Spanish Main.

The struggle for an ancient legacy of gold sought through the ages by reckless farers of the sea.

The fascinating story of strong men, hidden treasure and a courageous Princess of Destiny—woven into a magic texture of heart-stirring adventure and romance. A picture-play that will thrill you!

GOLDWYN PRESENTS

YELLOW MEN AND GOLD

—with—

HELENE CHADWICK and RICHARD DIX

Adapted from the famous tale of adventure

by GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

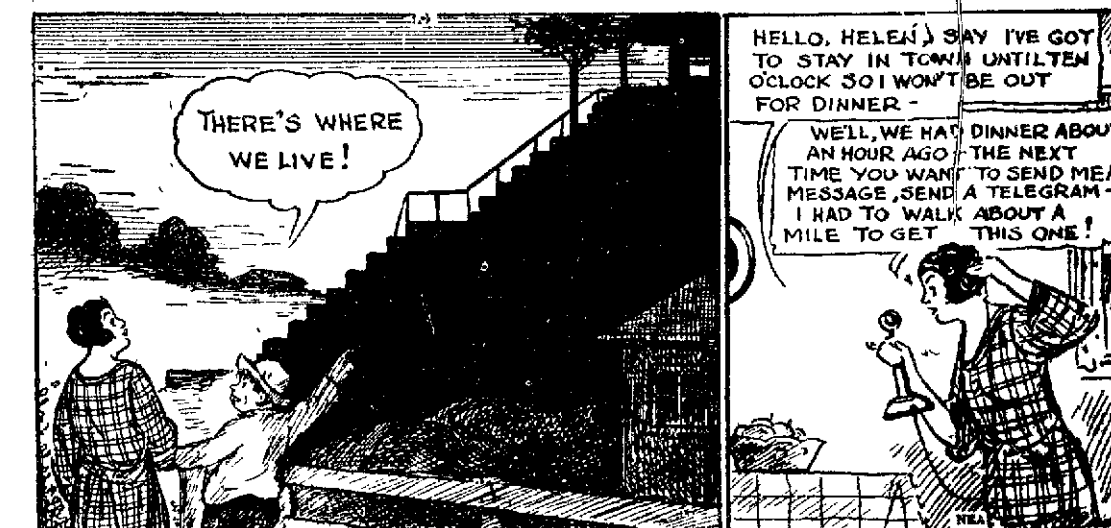

Personally Directed by Irvin V. Willat, by Special Arrangement

Driggs Theatre Tonight

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

By Allman

ARRANGE TO ENJOY YOUR SUNDAY DINNER TO THE
STRAINS OF THAYER'S
ORCHESTRA. DINNER WILL START AT ONE O'CLOCK.

JORDAN'S

GLEN RICHEY DEFEATS CURWENSVILLE

Glen Richey defeated Curwensville in a hard fought ten inning game at the Sunday School Picnic and Field meet Thursday by a 7-6 score.

The line up

	Ab	R	H	O	A	E
Glen Richey	5	2	3	1	1	0
Bachelor of	5	1	2	0	2	0
E. Winslow ss	4	6	3	0	0	0
Wolling lf	5	1	1	3	1	1
D. Rowles 3b	5	0	1	14	3	0
Daisley c	5	1	2	11	2	1
Morgan 1b	5	0	1	0	0	0
Gill rf	4	1	0	1	6	1
W. Winslow 2b	1	0	0	0	1	0
Johnson p.	3	1	1	0	0	0

	Ab	R	H	O	A	E
Curwensville	47	7	14	20	16	3
Morris 2b	5	0	0	2	2	0
Lantz lf	5	1	1	5	0	0
S. Robinson ss	5	3	3	6	4	0
C. Collins 3b	5	1	2	3	1	0
Wolf, 1b	5	0	2	7	1	1
Huns rf	4	0	0	0	0	0
Kantar of	4	0	0	2	0	0
Brunetti c	5	0	1	7	3	0
Erhard p.	5	1	3	0	2	0

Two base hits: Rowles, Bachelor, Winslow, E. Lantz, Collins, Erhard. Three base hits: Bachelor, Stiles, bases, Collins, Robinson, Wolling, 2. Double plays: Bachelor to W. Winslow. Strike outs: Johnson 2, Page 12, Erhard 5.

Optimistic Thought.

A grateful mind is not only the greatest of virtues but the parent of all other virtues.

BUILD UP THE KIDDIES FOR SCHOOL

It's only about two weeks before your kiddies will start the grind of the coming school year and you owe it to them to have them in the best physical shape they can possibly be in.

They will be able to do far better work if you build up their little bodies for them so that they start in with the added advantage of having reserve strength in plenty for their work.

Milk is the best food that you can use to build them up and our milk is the best that you can in this section on account of the minute care we give it from the time it comes to us until it reaches your table.

Clearfield Dairy Co.

TRY A WHITMAN SAMPLER FOR THE WEEK-END

If you've ever tried a WHITMAN SAMPLER for the week-end you know what goodness is contained in every piece of candy in the box. And then there's so many varieties that several of them are going to touch your candy-taste in good form.

Yours is waiting for you.

Stewart's Drug Store
Latter Store

SHIPPED HIS RACERS TO PUNXSUTAWNEY

Ex-Sheriff James Mahaffey, shipped two of his crack race horses to Punxsutawney today where they are entered in the races at the fair which starts next Tuesday.

The horses are "Dillon J." and "The Union," both of which are very capable performers. The stable is in charge of the veteran reinsman John Payne, and John promises they'll be heard from in the front rank next week.

Timely Advice.
"Take keer, mah friends," said the preacher solemnly; "take keer dat when de time comes to shuffle off dis ortal coil, you dean git los' in de shuffle." — Luck

The New BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN

A
30x3 1/2
Tire for $10.90

Here, at last, is a small car Brunswick tire that is all Brunswick in quality, in materials, workmanship and wearing ability. A tire that is making new records of long life, mileage and good service.

The BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN conforms to the high BRUNSWICK standard of manufacturing which has made this house famous for its quality products for three-quarters of a century.

Try a BRUNSWICK SUBURBAN on your car. You will gain a new conception of what real tire service means.

DEALERS IN CLEARFIELD
Routch & Swartzle,
Market Street Auto Sales Co.
Williams Auto Sales Co.
Clearfield Auto Supply Co.

Gossip For Tonight's Tea Table

A large number of Clearfield people attended the Grampian picnic today.

J. E. Miller, who is running a saw mill at Medix Run, Elk county, is going to spend Sunday with his family on Cherry street.

Miss Esther Ogden, who has been making her home with her uncle S. A. Smeal of Pleasant Grove, left today for Ridgeway to enter the hospital.

The H-I-Nu Club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halford on Third street last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beish, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting relatives in this section at present.

Misses Catherine Dixon and Agnes Cretzer have returned after spending the week-end with friends in Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Palmer and son of Hawatha, Kansas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lafferty, at their home on Clearfield street at present. Mr. Palmer was a former resident of Clearfield, but has been for the past fifteen or twenty years, farming on a large scale in Kansas.

Indoor Occupation.
"You must take an interest in outdoor sports," said the physician. "I do," replied the indolent citizen. "They provide my main reading every day."

Marvelous Scales.
The weighing machine used in the laboratory of the bureau of standards in Washington is said to be the most accurate in the world. It will weigh the wing of a fly.

DEMON DISEASE IS DOWN FOR COUNT IN CLEARFIELD

Secretary Gauvin, of the local Board of Health has old Demon Disease down for the count of nine and hopes to be able to maintain his "lead pipe cinch" hold upon the old fellow for the coming week. During the week just closed not a single case of contagious disease was reported to the Board of Health, while one scarlet fever case was released from quarantine during that time.

There are at present a total of eleven cases of contagion under quarantine in the town, ten of which are for whooping cough.

They are located as follows:
First Ward—Whooping cough, 7.
Second Ward—Whooping cough, 3;
Scarlet fever, 1.

Once more does the Third and Fourth Wards come through with clean bills of health, not a single case of communicable disease being reported from either of these Wards.

—Try Our Business Printing Dept.—

OLD TIMERS GET TOGETHER AGAIN

The O. of M. Club, an old-time local camping association, who used to camp at Gillerico, Golden Rod, Spruce Creek and other favored spots in this section, are enjoying the pleasures of a week-end at Goshen camp, while reminiscing over old times and old members, many of whom have folded their earthly tents and entered the celestial camping grounds.

The O. of M. Club in the heyday of its youth was composed of about a score of well-known local young men and of this number the following answered the call to renew their youth and talk over old times around the camp fire:—Fred B. Leavy, Fred B. Lee, Dr. R. W. Livingston, Pearl T. Davis, Frank Smoke, Boyd Smith, Charles LaBare, of Clearfield, and Geo. L. McCullough, of Tyrone.

Of the remaining members yet in the land of the living, but unable to attend, letters of regret at the inability to be present were received from the following:—Frank Wagner Newberry, Pa.; V. N. Herpster, Mt. Union, Pa.; E. L. Kennard, Rochester, N. Y.; Fred Sheeder, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ben Sheeder, Pottstown, Pa.; Theodore Shoemaker, Vermont.

Get Wise!

Treat Your Automobile Like
You Want To Be Used --

Use Emery Gasoline

You will use more air, get more mileage and have no starting trouble, due to quality of our gas.

Your car is a big part of your family pleasure. Would you feed your family skimmed milk? Why not give your car and truck good oils?

Emery Oils have stood the test for years. The heavy colored oils mean plenty of carbon and you pay for extra cleaning and needless depreciation.

USE CLEAR EMERY PENNSYLVANIA OILS

For Sale by —

WILLIAMS AUTO SALES CO.
ASHLEY SHAW
MARKET ST. AUTO SALES CORP.
CLEARFIELD AUTO SUPPLY CO.
ROUTCH & SWARTZLE
Look for "E M Co." signs.

Superior Oil & Supply Co.

Gasoline, Oils and Greases of all Kinds.
Mine and Mill Supplies

ALL OUT! LET'S GO!

Special Legion Meeting to Arrange Final
Details of Williamsport Trip

MONDAY,—8 P. M.

Williamsport Convention Committee Meets

MONDAY,—7:30 P. M.

Every Member at the Meeting.

Reports indicate big crowd going on
Special Friday morning, September 8th.

Come and get the latest dope on the Bonus.

ALL REMAINING SUMMER MERCHANDISE

---at---

Greatly Reduced
Prices

A. W. LEONARDSON CO.

A SPECIAL LOT

—of—

PLUNGERS

SELLING FOR 60c EACH.

These plungers are of the best quality red rubber and are complete with handle at this price.

Get one for your home. Only a limited number for sale.

WHY SOME STRIKE

Eight-hour day, National Agreement, Shop Rules, Recognition of the Union, Sympathy are only ripples on the surface. Greco says declare that a man cannot support his family at the going wage. Deep down, the unseen cause is the wage system itself, fundamentally wrong. B. M. Jewell, spokesman for the striking shopcrafts, declared that to support his family properly, a man must earn over $2,000 per year. My family of seven costs more. In 12 years of single machond my wages averaged $800 per year and board; yet I saved up $1,700, the foundation for my present fortune. The claim has been made that even at the 1921 wage, bituminous miners did not average $600 per year. On the other hand, increased wages, increase prices of product and increase cost of living leaves us no better off. Any one except a fool should know that wages enough for one will not support seven. Such folly is the wage system based on equal pay for equal work.

When a father of five wants to be honest and can't pay his bills, or cannot afford the doctor for his sick wife, he is ready to strike from sheer desperation. And his unmarried comrade who in one day at the same wage earns enough to keep him four, can afford to lay off and help the strike along. God bless the young men and women who undertake matrimony! The women who become mothers are the noblest of God's creation. Shall we continue to punish them with grinding toil, poverty, privation and distress, or is not the pain of childbirth and the anxious care over health and morals enough for their share? If the supply of children stops, the nation perishes, and America becomes a wilderness.

I, the watchman, have sounded an alarm.

If you send me to Congress, I'll do all I can to influence the other congressmen toward remedying this evil; and as a congressman, I can reach the public much better. Give me a boost! Send self-addressed envelope for my leaflet about 'The Laborer's Plight.'

ELISHA K. KANE,
Kushequa, Pa.
Political Advt.

10 South Third Street
Both Phones.

TAKE PICTURES OVER THE WEEK END

Wherever you are going to spend your week end, you'll want a pictorial record of the trip and we have the things that will make your trip much pleasanter.

We have the cameras in the popular sizes and of course have plenty of film for them.

We'll show you how to make pictures you'll be proud of.

Aughinbaugh's

ROOFING

Now is the time to replace or repair leaky roofs. Don't wait until cold weather. We have a JOHNS-MANVILLE Roofing Material for every need. Let us show you the economy of these permanent fire-resisting roof coverings.

CLEARFIELD
MACHINE SHOPS
Warehouse Department

Flabby skins become firm and youthful with
Marinello Rest Facial—75c
MARY S. DAVIES
No. 9 South Second Street
H. & C. 223-L

STRANGERS, VISITORS & COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS
Spending Sunday in Clearfield,
Are SPECIALLY invited to WORSHIP in
Trinity Methodist Church, Second and Walnut Streets.